

VOL. 81. NO. 331.

WALL STREET UTILITIES IN NEW UPTURN
AT WEEK END

Assortment of These Shares
Hurtled 2 to 18 Points Higher, Laclede Gas Showing Widest Range.

COVERING BY SHORTS ACCELERATES RISE

Buying in Some of the Railroad and Metal Shares —
Some Realizing in Market
Before Close.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Bears who were looking for a week-end reaction on the stock market today were given a severe shock when news of an impressive assortment of utilities and industrial shares were hurled upward in violent fashion.
A rush of short covering accelerated the rise, gains running from two to a maximum of 18 points in Laclede Gas.

Credit Outlook.
The easier tone in call money yesterday, which held at 10 per cent, caused greater optimism regarding the credit outlook, although the return of the month-end checks to the banks for collection next week is expected to keep money tight, and with growing commercial demands, bankers hold out no hope of any substantial decline in money rates for some time.
Wall Street, however, is expecting the Federal Reserve System to make credit available for commercial uses in increasing amounts.

The market opened irregular, with the upturn of 400,000,000 in Black Exchange member borrowings during July causing considerable buoyancy. Bears had looked for a steady reaction, after the sharp bidding up of high-priced shares yesterday, but a violent upswing soon set in in the utilities, followed by buying in some of the rail and metal shares.

Some reactions encountered in the last half-hour, and prices closed somewhat below their best levels of the day but generally well above last night's close. Operations remained largely professional, although trading was moderately active, approximately 1,342,000 shares changing hands in the two-hour session.

There was practically nothing in the day's news to influence the market. The week-end mercantile and industrial revivals remained cheerful, finding little change in the generally satisfactory conditions.

Westinghouse a Leader.
General Electric displaced Westinghouse as a market leader, shooting up nearly 16 points to a record price above 220, and closing near the top. International Telephone and American Can also important industrials reaching record levels. U. S. Steel was firm, selling within a fraction of its peak, and General Motors was well supported.

Laclede Gas was a high flier of the utilities, shooting up 18 points to a new peak, but losing all but a few points of its gain in the final hour. Brooklyn Union Gas mounted nearly 12 points to a new top, and closed with a net gain of 9. Consolidated Gas, People's Gas, Southern California Edison, General Public Service and Pacific Lighting all reached new tops in the afternoon, with Pacific closing near the top.

Rails Well Bought.
Rails were well bought, Delaware & Hudson, Union Pacific and New York Central mounting 3 points on 30. In the metals, International Silver soared 9 points to a new peak, and International Nickel mounted 4. American Metals was also well bought. Autumn Auto, which dropped 11 points yesterday, rallied 10 today, and closed up 8, net.

Radio was a soft spot, slipping back 2 points on profit taking.
American Telephone and American Foreign Power lost about a point each. Case Threshing, a valuable issue, fell back 5 points.
Canadian Pacific slipped off 1 point.

Foreign exchanges were irregular, sterling cables held steady at $4.43 1/2, while marks were firm and francs sagged slightly.

Grains were under moderate pressure, wheat losing about a cent a bushel, and corn sagging about one cent on reports of much-needed rains over part of the corn belt.
Cotton, however, closed firm at net advances.

Closing stock prices with other tables and market news, will be found on Pages 8, 9 and 10.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

The Only Evening Newspaper in St. Louis With the Associated Press News Service

ST. LOUIS, SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1929.—18 PAGES.

SPORT FINAL

PRICE 2 CENTS

PAJAMA FAD
TAKEN UP BY U. S.
PARTY IN RUSSIA

Men and Women Tourists Wearing Night Garments
Throughout Day.

By the Associated Press.
KISLOVODSK, Aug. 3.—American men and women, members of the delegation touring Soviet Russia for business and professional observations, have taken to wearing pajamas throughout the day.
Riding down the Volga River many in the party, oppressed by the temperature, attired themselves in bathing suits, but soon found this less practicable than wearing pajamas.

As they sat in their shimmering Japanese silk night garments in two huge dining cars attached to a special train, New York society women such as Miss Alice De Lamar, Miss Jane Breed, Miss Mary Van Rensselaer Cogswell, and Miss Anne Tonetti resembled gay figures at a masquerade ball. They seemed wholly undisturbed by the amazement of the Russians along the route.

While motoring to Caucasian health resorts nearby yesterday in their light, filmy dress, many Americans were caught in a heavy rainstorm and drenched to the skin. They took refuge in a Russian sanatorium at Esentuki where Communist surgeons supplied them with dry shirts and blouses.

PROPOSES TO MAKE CHILDREN OF 15 ELIGIBLE FOR DOLE

Miss Bondfield, British Minister of Labor, Would Extend System to Those Just Out of School.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 3.—Any 15-year-old child unable to find employment on leaving school will be placed on the national dole, plans now being considered by Miss Margaret Bondfield, Minister of Labor, who accepted.

She said yesterday she was going to submit at once for the consideration of the English and Scottish national advisory councils on juvenile employment a plan to lower the age for entry to unemployment and insurance benefit to the proposed new quit-school age of 15.

TWO KANSAS CITY ROBBERS KILLED FIGHTING POLICE

Men Corralled in Basement; After Holding Up Filling Station; Officer Wounded.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Aug. 3.—Two unidentified men were killed and James Dwyer, patrolman, was wounded slightly last night in a fight which occurred when police corralled robbers in the basement of an apartment house after following them from a robbed filling station.

Dwyer was shot in the arm when he and two other officers started into the basement. More than 50 shots were exchanged before the robbers fled, killed by charges from riot guns.

PARTLY CLOUDY TONIGHT AND TOMORROW; COOLER TONIGHT

THE TEMPERATURES.
A. M. 84, P. M. 81, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 85, P. M. 82, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 86, P. M. 83, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 87, P. M. 84, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 88, P. M. 85, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 89, P. M. 86, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 90, P. M. 87, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 91, P. M. 88, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 92, P. M. 89, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 93, P. M. 90, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 94, P. M. 91, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 95, P. M. 92, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 96, P. M. 93, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 97, P. M. 94, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 98, P. M. 95, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 99, P. M. 96, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.
A. M. 100, P. M. 97, WIND 10, CLOUDS 3.

THE ZOO IS HAVING A WILD MONGOOSE CHASE.

Official forecast for St. Louis and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight and tomorrow;
cooler tonight.

Missouri: Mostly fair tonight
and tomorrow;
cooler tonight.
Illinois: Mostly fair tonight and tomorrow; cooler
tonight.

General Weather Conditions.
The disturbance over the central plain states on Friday morning has advanced northeastward to the lake region. It has been attended by general rain, heavy amounts falling in parts of Illinois, Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio. There has been a general fall in the temperature over the Missouri River drainage area above Kansas City, and conditions are favorable for cooler weather over this vicinity late this afternoon and tonight.

Weather Forecast for Week.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The weather outlook for the week beginning Monday, Aug. 5, follows:
For the Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys—Probably a shower period, rain beginning and toward close of week; rising temperature Monday and Tuesday, mostly normal or above thereafter.

LABOR MAN NAMED AS SLAYER OF SERVICE DRIVER

Leo Brothers Accused in Inquest Verdict of Killing John de Blasi at 5051
Delmar Boulevard.

CHARGE MADE BY EYE-WITNESS

John Prosperito Says Organizer Had Been Extorting Money From Chauffeurs.

A Coroner's jury today named Leo Brothers, labor organizer who has been arrested more than 50 times for investigation but never convicted, as the man who shot and killed John de Blasi, 15-year-old service car driver on the Washington-Delmar route, in an alley in the rear of his home, 5051 Delmar boulevard, at 6:45 p. m., yesterday.

The homicide verdict was based on testimony by an eye-witness, John Prosperito, 18, 814 Morgan street, a service car driver and former schoolmate of De Blasi.
Prosperito testified Brothers had been extorting money from service car drivers and had quarreled with De Blasi yesterday at the "loop," meaning the space at Third street and Washington avenue, at the Eads Bridge entrance, where the Washington-Delmar drivers have their eastern termini.

Witness Tells of Killing.
Breaking the silence which has surrounded similar killings in the past, young Prosperito approached two policemen of the Carr Street District early today and described the killing of his friend, of which he said he was an eyewitness. He said he and De Blasi were getting out of a car behind the De Blasi home when another car occupied by three men approached and one of the men, after cursing De Blasi, shook him to death, then drove away.

Appearing later at the inquest, closely guarded by police, Prosperito wept as he took the witness stand. A small, boyish fellow, obviously fearful, he volunteered nothing, yet answered all questions frankly. Frequently he wiped his eyes with a handkerchief.

"Who shot your friend?" asked Coroner Dever.

"Leo Brothers—that's what they call him," Prosperito answered.

Tells of Quarrel.
"Why?"

"He shot him, I guess, because they had an argument down at the loop. Brothers tore a service card off John's car."

"What does Brothers do for a living?"

"He's supposed to be a 'red hot.'"
"Ever see him before?"

"Oh, yes, all the time. I saw him more yesterday than ever before. He seemed to be following John and me."

Charges Extortion.
Assistant Circuit Attorney Griffin continued the questioning, asking:

"Has Brothers been 'on the rack,' squeezing service car drivers?"

"Yes."

"How much did you give him?"

"Not a dime. I'm only a driver, not an owner."

"When did you see him first yesterday?"

"At Hamilton avenue, at 19 a.
m. He was riding up and down Washington all day."

RECORD-HOLDERS GIVE EXHIBITION OF REFUELING IN AIR

Thousands on Lake Front in Chicago Watch Demonstration by Jackson and O'Brien.

ROBIN STOPS ON WAY TO KANSAS CITY

Will Participate in Dedication of Airport Tomorrow —Greeted by Illinois
Governor at Springfield.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brien, St. Louis champion endurance flyers, piloted the St. Louis Robin in a demonstration before thousands of watchers showing how they re-fueled their plane and remained aloft on their record flight of 420 hours.

Delayed for three hours by murky, threatening clouds, Jackson and O'Brien and the refueling plane, took off from the municipal airport at 11 a. m.

A few minutes later they were soaring over the lake front in view of thousands who gathered along Michigan boulevard and in Grant Park or watched from windows of skyscrapers fronting the lake. Contact was made by the time the planes moved over the downtown section, and they flew low enough so that the gasoline feed line suspended to the Robin was clearly visible. After the refueling exhibition, headed southwest for the State capital.

Governor Greets Flyers at Springfield, Ill.

By the Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 3.—
After a 20-minute visit during which their plane and the refueling ship were viewed by the largest crowd since Col. Charles A. Lind-bergh's visit to Springfield, Airport, Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brien departed today for St.
Louis at 12:45 p. m.

A reception committee headed by
Gov. Emmerson and Postmaster William J. Conkling greeted the flyers. Local officials presented gifts.

Stop at Lambert Field to Take On Gasoline.

Jackson and O'Brien arrived at Lambert-St. Louis Field at 1:25 p.
m. today on the way to Kansas City from Chicago by way of Springfield, Ill. Their landing here was to take on gasoline. The St. Louis Robin and its refueling plane departed at 2:50 p. m. for Kansas City.

From Kansas City they will go to Memphis where refueling demonstrations are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, and from Memphis to 11 other cities, terminating their tour Aug. 18 at Valley Stream,
New York, where they will be guests of Curtis Flying Service officials.

Maj. William B. Robertson, president of the Curtiss-Robertson Airplane Manufacturing Co., who accompanied the flyers to Chicago, said they had an excellent trip back.
"We had a tail wind," he continued, "and traveled from Chicago to Springfield in an hour and 15 minutes. We made it from Springfield to St. Louis in 45 minutes. At Springfield, Gov. Emmerson presented the boys with Illinois watchets."

St. Louis Robin to Be Feature of Kansas City Airport Dedication.
By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Aug. 3.— A program of flying stunts to be featured tomorrow by the appearance of the Jackson and O'Brien Robin here today in connection with the dedication of Fairfax Airport.

Jackson and O'Brien were expected to fly here late this afternoon from St. Louis. Tomorrow they were scheduled to give an exhibition of refueling in the air.
Parachute jumps, landing and stunting contests, races of various kinds and other entertainment has been provided. Flyers and other visitors from many places in the Middle West began arriving today for the dedication, to be made formally tomorrow afternoon.

St. Louis to Be One of Control Points on National Air Tour.

Capt. Frank Hawks, holder of the trans-continental speed record and Ray Collins, manager of the National Air Tour, passed through St. Louis today on a pathfinding trip for the air tour. They landed at Lambert-St. Louis field at 9:30
a. m., took on gasoline and departed a short time later for Springfield, Mo.

St. Louis, they said, will be one of the control points on the National Air Tour.

CHEMIST AT TRIAL OF SNOOK TELLS OF TWO LOVE POTIONS

Reports on Analysis of Stomach Contents of Woman Veterinarian Is Charged With Killing.

HE RENTED A ROOM FOR SELF "AND WIFE"

Landlady Says Teacher Paid
Bill and Left Day After His Companion Was Found Slain.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 3.—Dr. C.
F. Long, City Chemist of Columbus, testified today in the trial of James H. Snook for the killing of Theora Hix that he found two emotional excitants in the young woman's stomach when he examined it after her death.

The State maintains that the former Ohio State veterinary professor gave her the concoctions as they drove to a rifle range on the edge of the city on the night of June 13 and then killed her.

Long said the excitants were in an undigested beef sandwich.

"How long had they been in her stomach?" Prosecutor Chester Jr. asked.

"Not exceeding an hour," Long replied.

The story of the rooming house rendezvous used by the 24-year-old medical student was told by Mrs. Margaret Smalley, from whom Snook rented the room last February under the name of "Howard Snook." She testified in detail of the occupancy of the quarters by Snook and the young woman who was represented as his wife.

Paid for Room Next Day.
Mrs. Smalley's story included the fact that on June 14, the day after Snook Hix was killed, Snook paid her for the room, saying that he was leaving the city. She quoted him as saying his "wife" would remain two days. The next day, she said, she went to the room and found the two keys she had given Snook when he rented the room.
Everything in the room but a woman's felt hat had been removed.

Detective Larry Van Skalk put into the record the account of Snook's arrest and Dr. Oscar W.
Brumley, professor of veterinary surgery at Ohio State University, identified two emotional excitants which the State maintains Snook gave Miss Hix the night she was killed. Brumley said that one jar was found in Snook's office and that the other came from the drug room at the veterinary department of the University.

Brumley said he had cautioned
Miss Hix about going out with Snook, and that he had given her testimony for the most part yesterday was devoted to establishing the fact of the killing and the defense attempt to gain from Coroner J. A. Murphy an admission that they had damaged the State's claim of premeditation in the killing, that the young woman may have died from hammer blows and not knife wounds, which Snook said he inflicted after she had struck him on the head.

Murphy said the hammer wounds might eventually have caused death, but laid the immediate cause to a severed artery. The State has maintained that after beating her unconscious with the hammer, Snook, "with premeditation" cut her throat. It is necessary under Ohio law to prove premeditation to obtain conviction of first degree murder and the death penalty.

FIRST NEGRO ELECTION OFFICIALS IN MEMPHIS

Undertaker and Teacher Made Registrars in Precinct With Heavy Negro Vote.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 3.—For the first time since reconstruction days, Negroes have been appointed election officials in this city.

The list of registrars announced by the new County Election Commission to serve in a precinct with a heavy Negro vote included the names of two Negroes, an undertaker and a school teacher. Otherwise the list for the county varied only slightly from that appointed by the old commission.

FIVE MEN KILLED BY TRAIN

New York Central Employees in Accident Near Kankakee, Ill.

By the Associated Press.
KANKAKEE, Ill., Aug. 3.—Five men were killed this afternoon six miles west of this city by a New York Central work train. The men are employees of the railroad.

ZEPPELIN PAST AZORES BUT REDUCES SPEED, MAY NOT LAND TILL MONDAY

Woman's Slayer on Trial in Ohio

JAMES H. SNOOK IN COURT.

BERLINER, INVENTOR OF GRAMOPHONE, DIES

Developer of Disc Record and Many Other Devices Victim of Apoplexy.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Emile Berliner, inventor of the gramophone, the first disc record talking machine, and a telephone transmitter, died at his home here today. He had been ill only about nine days.

He had an apoplectic stroke but rallied slightly. A relapse came yesterday and when death came members of his immediate family had gathered at the bedside. He was 73 years old.

With the telephone transmitter and the disc-record talking machine already to his credit, Berliner in his later years was associated with his son, Henry, in an advisory capacity for the development of the helicopter—an aircraft capable of rising straight up from the ground.

Berliner was a German immigrant. Before he achieved fame he sold glue, painted backgrounds on enlarged photographs and traveled as a salesman for a Milwaukee wholesale house at various times between 1870, when he reached the United States, until he went to Washington in 1877 to begin experimenting.

Studied Acoustics.
During his leisure time he studied electricity and acoustics and while a clerk in a Washington store he experimented after hours in his room and evolved the idea of the loose contact transmitter, or microphone, which placed the telephone on an advanced commercial basis, three years after Bell and Watson had invented the telephone in Boston. Later the microphone was to become the very soul of radio broadcasting.

In 1887 he developed the gramophone. This talking machine utilized the disc record, also his invention and a horizontal wave groove, rather than the existing up-and-down-groove. He invented and perfected, as well the present method of duplicating disc records. For his gramophone invention he received the John Scott medal and Elliott Cresson gold medal by Franklin Institute, Philadelphia.

Born at Hanover, Germany, May 20, 1851, Berliner graduated from Samson School, Wolfenbittel, in 1865 and came to the United States five years later. Friends of his father gave him his first start in Washington and he was wont to brush aside the rigors of his earlier years with the assertion that they were no worse than others experienced. He married Cora Adler of Washington in 1881. They had three sons and three daughters.

Rocking Chair Endurance Contest.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Aug. 3.—A rocking chair endurance contest was started here at 8 o'clock last night. Three girls and four boys are competing.

DR. RAY B. HORTON HELD FOR BLACKMAIL

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 3.—
Dr. Ray B. Horton, central figure in the state-wide diploma mill expose in 1925, was arrested in the act of carrying out an alleged blackmail scheme here this afternoon in the office of Dr. C. A.
Beard, physician.

Trapped by investigators for James R. Page, county prosecutor, as he accepted an envelope containing $1000 in marked money from Beard, Horton fought the investigators in an effort to escape.
In the struggle, the investigators said he tossed the envelope out a window and it fell five floors to the sidewalk where it was picked up by Robert Coffey, another investigator for Page.

Horton was taken to the prosecutor's office where Page announced that blackmail charges would be filed against him.

MONUMENT TO YELLOW BIRD

Spanish Flyers to Help Lay Foundation Where Plane Landed.
SANTANDER, Spain, Aug. 3.— Captains Jimenez and Iglesias, who flew recently from Spain to South America, will assist tomorrow in the ceremony of laying the foundation for a monument commemorating the landing of the French trans-Atlantic plane Yellow Bird at Comillas.

The monument has been financed by popular subscription and will be located on Olambie Beach, near the little town, famous as a resort of royalty. High Spanish dignitaries will assist in the ceremonies. The Yellow Bird started its flight at Old Orchard, Me. It was manned by Jean Assolant, Rene Lefevre and Almeno Lotti.

Free Band Concert Tonight
Carondelet Park, 7:30 to 10, Falkenhainer's Band.

"How Wet Is Dry America?"
Mrs. Mabel Walker Wille-brandt, former Assistant Attorney General in charge of prohibition enforcement, gives her answer in one of the twenty-four articles she has written on
"THE INSIDE OF PROHIBITION" Publication of these articles will begin next Monday in the POST-DISPATCH

Continued on Page 2, Column 2

TWO S. AIRSHIPS OF 80-PASSENGER CAPACITY PLANNED

Akron Company Preparing to Build Pair of Dirigibles Twice as Big as Graf Zeppelin.

PROPOSED FOR USE ON PACIFIC COAST

Would Be Inflated With Noninflammable Helium Gas and Have Dining Room and Shower Baths.

Re leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Plans for construction of two American dirigibles twice the size of the Graf Zeppelin and designed to carry 80 passengers each are to be announced today by Dr. Karl Arstein, vice president of the Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation of Akron, O.

Each of the new ships is to have a capacity of 6,500,000 cubic feet, as compared with the 5,000,000 foot capacity of the dirigibles R-100 and R-101, now nearing completion in England, and the 3,700,000 feet of the Graf Zeppelin. The American ships will be inflated with non-inflammable helium gas instead of the highly combustible hydrogen used by the others.

In addition to berths for 80 passengers, each ship will have a dining room, reception room, smoking deck, shower baths and other accommodations of surface caravel. While present plans are for the inauguration of the American service on the Pacific Coast it probably will be extended later to the Atlantic as well.

The two passenger ships will be the same size as the two navy ships now under construction at Akron, the first of which is scheduled for completion in 18 months. Girders, gas cells and other parts are being made at Akron, and the assembling will be at a hangar to be erected somewhere on the West Coast.

The use of helium gas will permit the motors, eight Maybachs, of 600 horsepower each, to be completely inside the ships' bodies. Only the propellers will project outside, and these are to be equipped with a swiveling device, expected to give better control in the upward and downward movements, especially when landing or taking off.

According to Dr. Arstein, each ship will have three great triangular corridors, or backbones, extending from nose to tail, giving them considerably greater strength than any Zeppelin hitherto built.

PACEMAKER KILLED, THREE HURT ON MOTORCYCLE TRAIL

Accident at Providence, R. I., Caused When Tire Bursts at 60-Mile an Hour Speed.

By the Associated Press. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 3.—August Gaethof, of Cranston, R. I., motor cycle pacemaker, injured in an accident on the cyclophone track last night, died today. The bursting of the rear tire on his motor cycle near the end of what apparently would have been a record-breaking hour-paced race, caused the accident.

Francisco Zucchetti, the Newark, N. J., rider whom he was pacing in a serious condition at the Rhode Island hospital. Two other performers, Nap Martin of Lowell, Mass., and his rider, Alfred Le Tourner of France, escaped with severe bruises, and burns suffered when they were thrown to the wooden track while riding at a speed of almost a mile a minute. Clarence Carmichael of Jamaica, L. I., former American bicycle champion, saved his own life as well as that of his rider, Charles Winter of New York, by handling his machine with remarkable skill as he guided it among the four men and their machines strewn over the course.

GERMAN CABINET FIXES POLICY

Delegates to Young Plan Conference Will Have United Backing.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—As the result of a cabinet meeting last night, the German delegation to the Hague conference on reparations next Tuesday will have the unanimous backing of the Government.

Complete agreement was reached on the attitude toward the Young plan for payments and the German policy at the Hague. Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann, who presided, expressed the hope that Chancellor Hermann Mueller would soon be able to return to his duties but, meanwhile, announced that they would be handled by War Minister Groener.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

Published Daily by the Pulitzer Publishing Co., St. Louis, Mo.
MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS AND BUREAU OF CIRCULATION
The Associated Press is a corporation organized to the use of the facilities of all news organizations for the purpose of disseminating news and information to the public. It is not a newspaper and does not publish news or other material. It is a service organization and its members are the news organizations which contribute to it. It is not a publisher and does not publish news or other material. It is a service organization and its members are the news organizations which contribute to it.

Stowaway on Zeppelin Is Kept in Solitary Confinement on U. S. Trip

No Symptoms of Sea Sickness Among Passengers, Who Show Good Appetites, Capt. Wilkins Writes—Comfortable Riding on Dirigible.

By SIR HUBERT WILKINS.
(Copyright, 1929.)

ABOARD THE GRAF ZEPPELIN, IN, Aug. 3.—We have had the finest sailing all day. Meals are served at regular hours and are eaten with amazing appetites—there is no such thing as seasickness aboard this dirigible. It is the most comfortable crossing I have ever taken.

After 50 hours the fuel consumption was checked, and it was found to be normal. For the first 15 hours we used gasoline, and since then the engines have been run on Blau gas, and all are working without a hitch. Everything mechanically is splendid. When we are following the wind only four motors are used.

The stowaway is being kept in solitary confinement in the rear emergency control room. It is the general opinion that he should be severely reprimanded and punished for his almost unforgivable act in jumping from the hangar down upon the hull. If steamships sink because of overloading, what might happen to a Zeppelin when overloaded and bearing a possible strain on the envelope at the point where the German youth landed in his jump?

For nine hours the Graf Zeppelin battled a gale over the Mediterranean, fighting its way from the Balearic Islands, which we sighted at 7 o'clock last night, to Gibraltar, over which we flew at 4 o'clock this morning.

After we had passed out over the Mediterranean and had reached the Balearic Islands, off the southeastern coast of Spain, many of the passengers retired, leaving calls for 2 a. m., when we expected to reach the famous Strait.

Out Over the Atlantic. We had crossed into the Mediterranean at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the shore wind light abeam as we headed well out into sea. By 3:30 o'clock a good wind was with us. One motor was reduced in speed, yet the others were running at full speed. At 4 o'clock the wind was blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

GRAF ZEPPELIN MAY NOT LAND UNTIL MONDAY

Continued From Page One.

fault to find with the performance of the Zeppelin.

The Zeppelin passed high over Gibraltar at 1 a. m. Friday morning (9 p. m. Thursday, St. Louis time).

It was cloudy and the rock itself could not be seen by the passengers, who had been awakened three times by the noise of the engine. At the last awakening they did see lights at Ceuta, on the opposite African shore.

Besides its 18 passengers, its single stowaway of whom so little has been said, and its crew of 41 officers and men, the Zeppelin has a large load of mail and freight. The 15 bags of mail contain 30,387 letters and 31,499 post cards.

Preparations Made at Lakehurst for Zeppelin's Arrival.

By the Associated Press. LAKEHURST, N. J., Aug. 3.—Preparations for reception of the Graf Zeppelin were under way today.

Arrangements for housing, refueling and caring for the huge airship were being made under the direction of naval officers. The ground crew of 275 attached to the dirigible Los Angeles has been augmented by 150 marines from the Brooklyn and Philadelphia navy yards.

The Los Angeles, undergoing its annual overhauling, has been moved to the north side of the hangar with the navy blimp J-3 and J-4 leaving the south side clear for the Zeppelin. Arrangements have been completed for piping the 1,000,000 cubic feet of special gasoline and the 500,000 cubic feet of hydrogen for its return flight.

High powered amplifiers have been installed on the roof of the hangar to broadcast reports to the crowd of the Zeppelin's progress as it nears the coast. A horn pointing skyward will enable officers of the ground crew to talk directly to those on the dirigible as it hovers over the field preparatory to landing.

Zeppelin to Pass Over St. Louis If Weather Is Favorable. WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—On the Graf Zeppelin's flight around the world, which is to begin at Lakehurst next week, the airship's pilot cabin will contain three portfolios

ZEPPELIN OBSERVER

—Associated Press Photo.
LIEUT. JACK C. RICHARDSON, former St. Louisan, who has been designated as United States observer aboard the Graf Zeppelin on its proposed flight around the world.

Lieut. Richardson, who is a balloonist and a member of the crew of the navy dirigible Los Angeles, will be a guest of the owners of the German airship which is now on its way from Friedrichshafen to America. He is the son of Harrison C. Richardson, former St. Louis business man, now of Los Angeles, and was graduated from high school in St. Louis before entering the United States Naval Academy. His designation as observer aboard the German craft was made by the Naval Air Station at Lakehurst, N. J., Wednesday.

straight for Gibraltar the wind again died down. We played bridge and chatted in the saloon, and then finally retired.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

Only then did we find out that we had been running out almost a full gale, blowing directly ahead. All night the Zeppelin had pushed firmly and steadily against those strong head winds and the gale.

MUSSOLINI DOUBTS MAYOR OF MILAN ON GRAFT CHARGE

At Same Time Criticizes Accuser for Giving Publicity to Case Reflecting on Fascists.

By the Associated Press. ROME, Aug. 3.—Ernesto Belloni, Italian financial expert at Versailles and at the reparations and debt conferences, and Mayor of Milan, was removed summarily yesterday by Premier Mussolini from all public and political activity and various of his advisers were imprisoned. The action followed report of a committee into Belloni's activities as podesta (Mayor) of Milan.

The charges provoked the investigation were made by Roberto Farinacci, former Secretary of the Fascist party and now Provincial Secretary at Cremona. Farinacci said Belloni favored the New York bankers, Dillon Read and Co., in return for a large money compensation in allotting a loan of $30,000,000 to the city of Milan in 1927.

The committee exonerated Belloni of this charge, but found he had used his office to increase greatly his private fortune.

Farinacci himself was subjected to scathing criticism by the Premier, who said: "The head of the Government deplures in most forceful manner the action of Attorney Farinacci, deputy in Parliament and member of the Grand Council, for having brought publicity and grave defamatory accusations touching directly the Fascist party and a great banking institution of the United States."

These accusations, which the committee has ascertained are wholly without foundation, have furnished to remains of anti-Fascists, to radical Masonic elements of Milan, Italian and foreign, a new pretext for comments to damage the kingdom.

The committee's report on the Dillon-Read loan was that the loan itself was regular but that the negotiations were carried on by Belloni in a most irregular manner. The committee's report says:

"His (Belloni's) figure appears always the same in the personal field as in the political field. He brought into the administration of public affairs that spirit of ledgerdom and light-fingeredness and sometimes of criminal complacency which characterized him in private life and through which he intended to insure himself in any event the greatest financial result. He favored friendship or clients and enlarged through the municipality his sphere of influence."

Belloni was examined by the committee during its inquiry. His plea was that he undertook extraordinary expenses and contracts for the city in order to elevate it to splendor in accordance with directives of the Government and of Premier Mussolini. The committee answered:

"But it is evident that in his program he gave excessive and erroneous interpretation to propositions of the Duce, since as is natural, every administrative activity must be of importance and noteworthy enough to be carried on in limits of the laws and with caution for public funds."

Belloni was president of the Fascist Congress held in Rome in 1921 before the party came into power. Farinacci once occupied the post now held by Belloni as podesta.

The committee conducting the inquiry composed of Senator Berio, president of the Council of State; Senator Longhi, president of the Court of Cassation, and Gen. Ferrar.

The committee reported that Belloni had caused one street in Milan to be paved four separate times, each time giving the contractor a company in which he was interested. He also was executive in a gas company which got favorable gas contracts from the city.

The Dillon Read & Co. loan referred to in the charges was made in April, 1927, and was for 6.5 per cent interest at 85.50 lire in the hundred, payable in 25 years. The Banca Commerciale Italiana made what many considered a better offer but was turned down. Other banks bidding for the loan were J. P. Morgan & Co.; Blair & Co.; Harris Forster & Co.; the Guaranty Trust Co. and the Bankers' Trust Co.

The committee's report said: "Judging from documents existing in the city hall one cannot hide the impression the procedure followed by the city administration in the preliminary phases of the contracting was most irregular."

The committee also reported that Belloni had caused one street in Milan to be paved four separate times, each time giving the contractor a company in which he was interested. He also was executive in a gas company which got favorable gas contracts from the city.

The committee also reported that Belloni had caused one street in Milan to be paved four separate times, each time giving the contractor a company in which he was interested. He also was executive in a gas company which got favorable gas contracts from the city.

The committee also reported that Belloni had caused one street in Milan to be paved four separate times, each time giving the contractor a company in which he was interested. He also was executive in a gas company which got favorable gas contracts from the city.

The committee also reported that Belloni had caused one street in Milan to be paved four separate times, each time giving the contractor a company in which he was interested. He also was executive in a gas company which got favorable gas contracts from the city.

The committee also reported that Belloni had caused one street in Milan to be paved four separate times, each time giving the contractor a company in which he was interested. He also was executive in a gas company which got favorable gas contracts from the city.

ONE CHILD KILLED, 33 OTHERS HURT IN TRUCK EXPLOSION

Motor Vehicle Loaded With Ice Cream Had Upset When Driver Tried to Avoid Collision.

By the Associated Press. TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 3.—One child was burned to death and 17 seriously injured when the gasoline tank of a wrecked ice cream truck exploded yesterday.

John Muha, 5 years old, died at a hospital. Thirteen others are in hospitals suffering from burns, six of these in a serious condition. About 20 more were permitted to go to their homes after receiving treatment at hospitals and at the scene of the wreck.

The truck, property of the Hildebrecht Ice Cream Co., upset at Lambert and Cass streets as the driver attempted to make a sharp turn to avoid a collision. A crowd, mostly youngsters, attracted by the sight of the crowd gathered around the overturned truck.

While a wrecking crew worked over the vehicle a man removed the cap from the gasoline tank. The fuel flowed over the heated motor and exploded, showering flaming liquid upon the crowd.

Cries of the victims aroused the neighborhood, a crowded tenement district. Uninjured bystanders stopped the children as they ran with burning clothes on their bodies. Parents rushed about seeking their children while hastily summoned automobiles and ambulances carried the severely injured to the hospitals.

Police today were looking for the man who released the gasoline.

SURVIVOR OF SUBMARINE DISASTER HELD NEGLIGENT

Reprimand Ordered for Commander of H47, One of Three Lost in Irish Sea.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Aug. 3.—Lieut. Robert James Gardner, commander of the submarine H47 and one of three out of the 26 on board who escaped when the vessel sank after collision in the Irish Sea last month, was found guilty of negligence by a court martial yesterday.

For not ordering his ship after such a manner as to avoid the consequences of negligent navigation of the submarine H47. He was ordered reprimanded.

About a week ago Lieut. Claude Stanley Griffith Keen of the H47 was ordered to be reprimanded and dismissed from his ship after he had been held responsible for the disaster by a general court martial.

He had claimed that the H47, crossing the bow of the H47, had made the fatal mistake of stopping while he was doing his utmost to avoid the collision which followed.

HOOVER AND SENATOR MOSES IN CONFERENCE ON POLITICS

New Hampshire Leader Says Claudius H. Huston Will Succeed Dr. Hubert Work.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Politics, the Lausanne treaty, diplomatic affairs, patronage and other subjects were discussed yesterday at a long White House luncheon conference between President Hoover and Senator Moses, president of the Senate, whom the chief executive summoned here from his home in New Hampshire.

The Senator afterwards expressed the opinion that Claudius H. Huston of Tennessee would succeed Dr. Hubert Work as chairman of the Republican National Committee.

He said New England members of the committee favored Huston who, some committee members, now has a clear majority in the committee.

As to the Lausanne treaty, Moses told the President that the Ambassador to Turkey had an important job ahead of him since, in his judgment, a new treaty with Turkey would have to be negotiated. The Lausanne pact is still in the hands of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Moses said he was of the impression that no new diplomatic appointments would be made for several weeks or more, with the probability that most of them would be announced after the special session of Congress ends.

U. S. TOURIST WHO ROBBED
ESCORIAL TO BE FREED ON BOND

Chicago Banker Must, However, Stay in Spain to Face Trial Later.

By the Associated Press. MADRID, Spain, Aug. 3.—Judge Canova Del Castillo has announced that he expects to sign a decree late today giving provisional liberty to Backey J. Dee, Chicago tourist held in jail for removing a valuable antique plaque from the famous Escorial palace.

ACCORD TO REOPEN MANCHURIAN RAIL SERVICE REPORTED

Russian and Chinese Representatives Said to Have Agreed at Third Conference.

By the Associated Press. TOKIO, Aug. 3.—The third party between Chinese and Soviet representatives took place last night at Manchouli, Manchuria. B. N. Meinkov, Soviet Consul-General at Harbin, crossed the international border to confer with Tsai Tuns-sheng, Commissioner for Foreign Affairs at Harbin.

They met on a train, heavily guarded by Chinese troops. It was understood that besides withdrawal of troops the two virtually agreed upon resumption of international railway traffic between the Trans-Siberian Railway and the Chinese Eastern.

The chief disagreement was said to be on the question of restoration of the status quo before seizure of the Chinese Eastern as a preliminary condition to formal conference.

China Will Not Accept Any Soviet Conditions for Parity.

By the Associated Press. NANKING, China, Aug. 3.—Foreign Minister C. T. Wang declared that the Nationalist Government would accept no conditions for the opening of negotiations with the Soviet union on the problem of the Chinese Eastern Railway in Manchuria.

He did not indicate in making this statement whether he already had received the Soviet announcement announcing three drastic conditions in the matter. These called for liberation of Soviet workers and civil service men held in Manchuria, appointment by the Soviet Government of both manager and assistant manager of the railroad and immediate calling of a conference to negotiate questions arising out of the dispute.

BRITISH-RUSSIAN NEGOTIATIONS INTERRUPTED OVER PROCEDURE

Questions of Policy Not Involved, Says Report From London.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Aug. 3.—The hitch in the British-Russian negotiations for resumption of diplomatic relations was said in official quarters today to have arisen over the question of procedure and not policy.

Rumors that the departure of Doyalevsky, Russian Ambassador in Paris and Russian representative in the negotiations, was connected with unpleasantness in his discussions with Foreign Secretary Henderson were denied emphatically.

Misunderstanding as to the nature and scope of the initial conference is reported to have been the cause for suspension of the discussions. It is known that the questions of propaganda and Russian debts were not broached.

The next move in the effort to renew normal relations between the countries is expected to come from Moscow.

ABOLITION OF JURY SYSTEM IS PROPOSED IN MEXICO

Substitution of Psychologists and Alienists Provided in New Penal Code.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 3.—Abolition of the jury system and substitution of a committee of psychologists, alienists and other experts is provided for in a new penal code to be submitted to President Gil this month.

The code has been approved by the legislative committee of the Department of the Interior and the President has until Aug. 31 to expedite it under extraordinary powers recently granted to him by Congress.

Felipe Canales, acting Secretary of the Interior, explained the committee's viewpoint which is that juries are not apt to understand the technical and psychological aspect of a crime and are inclined to find verdicts based mostly on sentiment. A body of experts, acting in place of the jury, he pointed out, would go into all angles of the case with technical knowledge to give it the foundation for a fair finding.

The proposed code sanctions the death penalty, the committee holding that it is "necessary, decorous and legal."

PAUL KELLY, MOVIE ACTOR, GETS PAROLE FROM PRISON

Released From San Quentin After Serving Two Years for Killing Dorothy Mackaye's Husband.

By the Associated Press. SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Aug. 3.—Paul Kelly, movie actor, sentenced to San Quentin prison for killing Ray Raymond, actor, in a fist fight over Raymond's wife, Dorothy Mackaye, an actress, was released on parole yesterday. Kelly was sentenced to five years for manslaughter and served two years and a month.

Dorothy Mackaye served 10 months for her part in the case. She was convicted of conspiring to withhold information concerning her husband's death, which occurred in Los Angeles.

Kelly was paroled for "excellent behavior." He said he had obtained a clerk's position in New York.

MURDERED

JOHN DE BIASI.

LABOR ORGANIZER NAMED AS SLAYER OF SERVICE DRIVER

Continued From Page One.

shots and ran to his side, saw a man with a revolver jump on the running board of the Cadillac with two men inside.

"Why did you shoot my brother?" she demanded. The armed man called to his companions: "Come on, let's get out of here." The car drove east in the alley to Kingshighway, turned north and disappeared in the heavy evening traffic.

On information furnished by Prosperito, police raided Brothers' room at a hotel at 6500 Delmar boulevard. Brothers was not there, but the police found a card giving his membership in the Mounds Country Club, the elaborate gambling house near the Madison Kennel Club. Police and Deputy Sheriff hurried to the club, but Brothers was not there either. A general order for his arrest was issued.

De Biasi walked yesterday morning to learn a stenoch bomb had been thrown overnight into his home. When killed he was using another car borrowed from Jack Deane, 5228 Delmar.

"I know who threw that bomb, but I'm not going to tell," De Biasi had said to Devine.

Told Friends of Threats. De Biasi, according to relatives and friends, had spoken of being threatened since he and some friends withdrew recently from a service car drivers' union and joined an independent association of drivers in which the dues were lower.

Police records show Brothers had been arrested for investigation in stench bomb throwings and holdups, but never prosecuted.

De Biasi had been under $25,000 bond since his arrest last May on complaint of a 15-year-old girl that he and three other youths had criminally attacked her. The bond was returnable Sept. 16.

KILLED FARMER FOR A SPY IN 1915, SENTENCED TO DIE

Ex-Captain of Austrian Gendarmes Convicted in Belgrade; Victim Was Hunting Lost Horse.

By the Associated Press. BELGRADE, Aug. 3.—The law reached back across 14 years and the wreck of an empire today to sentence Capt. Pir, formerly of the Austrian gendarmes, to be hanged for shooting a Jugo-Slav farmer in 1915.

Pir was shown by testimony to have killed the farmer, Marco Djilic, on suspicion of spying while the Austrian armies were occupying the northern part of Serbia in 1915.

Djilic, while hunting for a lost horse, had entered the gendarme's barracks.

Djilic's relatives began suit immediately after the end of the war and the trial ended only recently. Pir appealed from the sentence.

WILLS $5,000,000 TO CHARITY

Bernhard Baron, Once Immigrant in U. S., Leaves $25,000,000 Estate.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Aug. 3.—An abstract of the will of Bernhard Baron, millionaire tobacco magnate who died Thursday, indicates that his estate will be approximately $5,000,000 (about $25,000,000). About $5,000,000 will be available for charity.

The will directs the body be cremated and the ashes deposited beside those of his wife in an obelisk at the Liberal Jewish Synagogue at Willesden in suburban London. Small American and British flags are to be placed inside the compartment with the urn. Baron, who was born in Russia, emigrated to America and started his fortune in London where he gained large interests in the cigarette industry and in later years made large contributions to charity.

Special Bus Service Tomorrow to Lambert-St. Louis Field. Special bus service between the Well

AUSTRIA SEIZES FASCIST ARMS
100 Rifles, Several Machine Guns and Ammunition Taken
Special to the Post Dispatch.
VIENNA, Aug. 2.—One hundred rifles, several machine guns and ammunition, alleged to be for use of the Austrian Fascists, were seized today by the Austrian customs authorities.
Austrian Liberal newspapers allege that both Fascists and Monarchists were involved in a conspiracy to seize a Danube River steamer and transport the arma-

MEYER 'LIKELY' TO GO BACK TO MISSOURI

Ousted Psychology Head to Teach in University of Chile Until December.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Aug. 2.—Dr. Max Friederich Meyer, former head of the University of Missouri psychology department, who was suspended for a year for his part in the distribution of sex questionnaires, announced yesterday he is "very likely" to return to his former position here at the end of his forced leave of absence. Dr. Meyer came here for a short visit before sailing from New York for Chile, Aug. 15, where he will be a faculty member at the University of Chile. Until recently Dr. Meyer has been in St. Louis engaged in research work at the Central Institute for the Deaf. He said he would finish his work there when he returns from Chile, late in December.

His addition to the faculty of the University of Chile came about by the request of the Pan-American Union through its director-general, L. S. Rowe, of Washington, D. C. The Pan-American Union has asked Dr. Meyer to conduct a study of the "relative educational reorganization" in progress in Chile. He will also be expected to place the Pan-American Union in touch with educational leaders in Chile.

"I'll show them with the instruments what we have been doing in psychology in North America," Dr. Meyer smiled. He explained that, his going to South America was pleasing to him because he had been interested there for several years and had kept up correspondence with officials of the Pan-American Union.

Dr. Meyer will be replaced at the University of Missouri this fall by Josephine Smith, of Webster Groves, St. Louis suburb, who received her M. A. degree last year as student under Dr. Meyer. She will teach the two courses now offered in the department.

Dr. Meyer today praised Miss Smith as a successor, mentioning especially research work she had done on the subject of "which hand is the eye of the blind." Miss Smith's discoveries apparently prove that the blind are being taught both right and left in the wrong direction.

ST. FRANCIS COUNTY SCHOOL EXHIBIT SHIPPED TO FAIR

Art, Hand and Science Displays Expected to Surpass Showing of Last Year.

FARMINGTON, Mo., Aug. 2.—St. Francis County has already shipped the educational exhibit of the public schools to the State Fair at Sedalia, Mo. E. Dosing, who is in charge of the vocational trades department of Flat River High School, will look after the exhibit. The Flat River school will have on exhibit two steam engines as well as a large model exhibit. The department won first place in the State last year on a steam engine and second in the metals exhibits displayed at that time.

Work on display includes in the art department subjects such as free hand paper cutting from the grades, also posters illustrating life in other nations, health posters, booklets illustrating daily work, landscape compositions in crayons, water colors and cut paper.

The high school exhibits in art consist of numbers of subjects in water colors and pencil. The high school art exhibit is supplemented by note books in some of the sciences and social studies which were a part of regular work required.

The hand work exhibit consisted of models of farm equipment such as chicken coops, feed troughs, various pieces of woodwork for household use, complete mechanical tools exhibits of knot tying and rope splicing, bird houses, exhibits of tea towels and 80-pound flour sacks or similar material. It is considered that the exhibit will far surpass that of 1928.

The Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau and other civic organizations have gone on record as endorsing an annual educational exhibit from the schools of the county.

TEXAS SLAYER WHO APPEARED FROM 50-YEAR TERM EXECUTED

Harry J. Leahy Put to Death in Huntsville Prison for Murder of Dr. J. A. Ramsey.

HUNTSVILLE, Tex., Aug. 2.—Harry J. Leahy, Southwest Texas rancher, who chanced death rather than accept a 50-year prison sentence, died in the electric chair at the State penitentiary yesterday for the murder of Dr. J. A. Ramsey of Meath.

On Thanksgiving day, 1926, a jury at George West found Leahy guilty and gave him 50 years in the penitentiary. Leahy presented a motion for a new trial, which was granted with a change of venue to Georgetown.

At the second trial Leahy was sentenced to death, Feb. 9, 1927. Then began a fight for life which was not terminated until a few minutes before Leahy went to the chair. With the time for the execution at hand, Gov. Moody telephoned a 30-minute reprieve to permit the rancher's attorneys to make a final effort to find a judge who would stay the execution.

ADMIRAL SAYS WORLD SEEMS WAY TO DISARM

Everyone Believes in Limitation, but Problem is How, C. L. Hussey Says.

By the Associated Press.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 2.—The greatest problem in the limitation of armaments lies in the question "how to disarm?" Rear Admiral C. L. Hussey, U. S. N., retired, said today in discussing arms limitation before the Institute of Politics.

"Everyone believes in limitation of armament," he said. "The question is how to do it. The navy would welcome limitation of armament provided national security is not endangered. It is that sort of limitation that Britain and France are seeking; the only sort that any one people will sanction."

"The official reports of armament conferences are discouraging readings. While it may be presumptuous to criticize the methods used in these conferences, it is evident that under the auspices of the league or outside the league these last 19 years of attempts in the interest of the limitation of armaments have not borne fruit. I believe the solution to the problem lies in going back of armaments to a study of the material and moral welfare of mankind, to the changing world; the changes wrought by science; and the evolution of civilization. There we will get a better line on the inherent character of concepts of human relations. There we may find the answer to our question 'how to disarm?' In considering another question 'why arm?'"

Lack of consideration for the rest of the world is the outstanding characteristic of all nations in deliberations for the settlement of international problems, Admiral Hussey said. In the league and out, he said, self-interest is the dominating note of discussions and has hampered their progress.

Dr. Williams T. Foster, head of the Polak Foundation for Economic Research, addressing the institute on "the problem of sustaining trade and employment," advocated the introduction in every State Legislature of bills looking to unemployment relief as an effective means of dealing with the unemployment situation.

"Public opinion is aroused to the seriousness of the problem and will prove receptive to ideas paving the way to evolutionary changes for the stabilizing of national industrial life," he said.

CHANUTE (KAN.) WOMAN KILLS HUSBAND AND HERSELF

Apparently Despondent Because of Mate's Drinking, Is Coroner's Explanation.

By the Associated Press.

CHANUTE, Kan., Aug. 3.—A note signed by Mrs. M. L. Johnson, whose body and that of her husband were found at their home yesterday morning, has led county authorities to conclude that the woman had shot her husband and then taken her own life.

Coroner Dr. R. A. Light, announced that no inquest would be held, as it was evident that Mrs. Johnson had planned the shooting. The note, signed by Mrs. Johnson, was left in an envelope with several rings read:

"Please find enclosed diamonds valuable enough to take care of our bodies. If possible have them both cremated and scatter ashes anywhere."

Coroner Light said he believed the woman had become despondent over the excessive drinking of her husband.

SYD CHAPLIN IS MISSING

Movie Comedian Disappeared Five Weeks Ago in England.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Syd Chaplin, American motion picture actor who for some time has been working for British producing concerns, has been missing for five weeks, it was learned today.

The comedian, brother of Charles Chaplin, was last seen at Elstree, British movie colony, more than a month ago. Because of his complete absence, work has been suspended on the picture in which he was acting.

Steamship Movements

Arrived.

Alexandria, Aug. 2, California, from New York.

Bremen, Aug. 2, George Washington, New York.

Leith, Aug. 2, Lancastria, New York.

Sailed.

Galway, Aug. 2, Cleveland, for New York.

New York, Aug. 2, Majestic, Southampton.

New York, Aug. 2, Paris, Havre, Shanghai, Aug. 2, President Jefferson, San Francisco.

Cobb, Aug. 2, President Roosevelt, Hamburg, Aug. 2, Hamburg, New York.

Genoa, Aug. 2, Augustus, New York.

Antwerp, Aug. 2, Penland, New York.

Addition to Fort Sill Hospital.

LAWTON, Ok.—A contract will be let soon for a $1,000 addition to the Fort Sill Indian Hospital. Plans have been approved by the United States Government. L. R. Carr of Muskogee, supervisor of construction for the Indian Department, will direct the work.

When the Cook leaves—sign? No, smile and send a POST-DISPATCH Want Ad to Bring a better Cook

One Death From Heat Occurs in City, Another in East St. Louis.

By the Associated Press.

Two persons died and seven were overcome here and in East St. Louis yesterday by the heat, which reached a maximum of 99.4 degrees at 3:45 p. m., the hottest St. Louis weather since Aug. 1, 1924, when it was 100. Some relief is in store, it was indicated by the Weather Bureau forecast of "partly cloudy tonight and tomorrow; cooler tonight."

By 11 o'clock this morning the temperature here dropped to 78 and it was cloudy, with a breeze downtown.

Last night was sweltering, for the thermometer never went below 81 degrees, reaching its minimum at 5 o'clock this morning. The maximum here during the day was 90 or above every day since July 23. Yesterday morning there was a reading of 75 degrees. Last year's record heat was 95 on July 3.

An unidentified man was found unconscious on the sidewalk at 1100 South Jefferson avenue at 5 p. m. yesterday. He died from the heat at City Hospital at 9:30 p. m. He was five feet, eight inches tall, weighed 150 pounds, had a dark complexion and was brown trousers and shirt and a straw hat with the brim turned down. His age was not estimated.

Henry Bruergeman, 66, Ninety-fifth street, Edgemoor, employed the day before yesterday at the foundry of the Westcott Valve Co., Thirty-first street and Ridge avenue, East St. Louis, was overcome at 5:30 p. m. while at work. He died at St. Mary's Hospital at 8:10 p. m. Company officers said he had been ill previously.

An unidentified youth about 18 years old, found unconscious from heat on the sidewalk at Second and Utah streets at 11 p. m., is being treated at City Hospital. Other heat victims who were brought to the hospital yesterday were: Henderson Jones, 55, of 1407 St. Ange avenue, overcome at 11:30 p. m. in a tire shop at 600 Spruce street.

Mrs. Helen Russell, 44, 1007 North Broadway, overcome in the Municipal Court Building at 7 p. m. and taken to City Hospital.

Ted R. Griffing, 22, a salesman, 3940 A Westminister place, found helpless in an automobile at Taylor avenue and Lindell boulevard, yesterday morning, for medical attention by a policeman.

Robert Sullivan, 4, a clerk, 5245 Spalding avenue, overcome in the Central-teed Products Co. of the 1531 North Eleventh street, at 4:10 p. m. and taken to City Hospital.

Albert Pratt, 45, a Negro hotel carrier, 706 North Fifteenth street, overcome at Boyle and Vandeventer avenues at 3 p. m., and taken to City Hospital No. 2.

Henry Jones, 45, a Negro, 1830A Division street, overcome at his home and taken to City Hospital No. 2.

ILLINOIS FREE METHODISTS BEGIN 50TH CAMP MEETING

One Thousand Encamped in Grove Near Corcoran for 10-Day Event.

PANA, Ill., Aug. 3.—The fifty-fifth annual camp meeting of the Central and Central Illinois Free Methodist Church, which opened in a grove near Corcoran, today, southeast of Pana, Friday, with over 1000 campers registered. The meeting will continue until Sunday night, Aug. 11.

The event is in charge of the Rev. E. J. Bennett, Central district elder, who will be assisted by some 100 pastors of the district. The Rev. R. B. Campbell of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived today and will be in charge of the evangelistic services, delivering sermons every evening.

WELSH GATHER FOR FESTIVAL

More Than 800 Bands to Compete at Elstree in Liverpool.

LIVERPOOL, England, Aug. 3.—Welshmen from all over the world are crowding into Liverpool today for the National Elstree festival, which will begin at Sefton Park here Monday. It is hoped to arrange for the arch druid and several bands to meet the steamer Athenia at the Liverpool landing stage Monday afternoon. A party of 400 from the United States.

The festival lasts six days and more than 800 bands will compete for prize money totaling £2500 (about $12,000). There will be a formal reunion ceremony next Thursday when former Premier David Lloyd George will welcome Welsh from other lands.

Tolono, Ill., Church Burns.

TOLONO, Ill., Aug. 3.—The Catholic Church and parish house were destroyed yesterday by fire which started when the church was struck by lightning. Damage was estimated at $12,000. The Chicago fire department was fighting the flames a water pipe burst, and by the time other connections could be made the fire had spread from the church to the parish house.

Becomes Governor of Samoa.

PAO-PAO, American Samoa, Aug. 3.—Capt. Gatewood S. Lincoln of the United States Navy was inaugurated Governor of American Samoa today, relieving Capt. Stephen V. Graham, who had held the office since Aug. 1927. Lincoln also became commandant of the naval station here. At the inaugural ceremony speeches were delivered by Lincoln and Graham and by Samoan high chiefs.

Investigation of Missouri's State finances and taxation, a phase of the work of the State Survey Commission, has been started, according to last week's progress report of the commission. Experts from Washington, the Bureau of Municipal Research and the Kansas City Public Service Institute are conducting it. Items to be included are:

Investigation of the financial methods of the State, including accounting, budgeting, auditing, collecting and disbursing funds.

Determination of the financial condition of the State, including analysis of expenditures of the State from 1919 to date, carrying statement of such expenditures in terms of the 1913 dollar.

Forecast of expenditures for a number of years in the future, based on present standard of efficiency in State departments.

Analysis of the revenues from 1919 to date, including a statement of revenues in terms of the 1913 dollar.

Forecast of revenues for a number of years in the future, based on present tax laws, restricted to estimation of changes in values and valuations.

Comparisons of revenues and expenditures with those of other States of comparable responsibilities.

All preliminaries of the various branches of the State survey have been completed, it was announced, and the collection of information is well under way. In the case of the inquiry into penal institutions virtually all of the needed information has been gathered and the data is being compiled.

GRAVELING ON HIGHWAY 15

MEXICO TO PARIS COMPLETE

Road Affords Connection With U. S. 35 at Shelbyville, Work Started

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MEXICO, Mo., Aug. 3.—The graveling of Highway No. 15 from Mexico to Paris was completed yesterday, finishing this hard-surfaced connection between the two communities.

The graveling of the 27 miles between the two towns began three years ago, and contracts were let at that time for the surfacing of the 18 miles north to complete the entire work.

The 11 miles in Monroe county were completed three years ago. This hard-surfaced road affords a connection with U. S. No. 36 at Shelbyville, the Hannibal to St. Joseph cross-state highway, and offers another short cut to Chicago, crossing the Mississippi River at Quincy, connecting with U. S. No. 54 and State route No. 22 at Mexico.

D. McDonald, State engineer supervising the work, said Thursday that after some final work by the contractor in dressing up the shoulders of the road, that the State would take it over for maintenance next week.

CHINESE PRINCE HSIEH KAI, WOUNDED BY CHANG, DIES

Former Shantung War Lord Says Shot Was Fired Accidentally.

By the Associated Press.

TOKIO, Aug. 3.—Prince Hsien Kai, 21-year-old cousin of China's former boy emperor, Pui-yi, died last night of wounds received the preceding night from a pistol held by Chang Tzu-chang, former Shantung war lord.

The youthful Manchur, after a call on Chang, was standing in the garden of the Japanese Hotel where Chang lived on the island of Kishu when he was shot.

Chang said he was handing the pistol to his quarters above when it went off accidentally, wounding the Prince.

Authorities are investigating the accident story.

GRANDSON OF JOHN BIGELOW, ENVOY UNDER LINCOLN, TO WED

Col. John Bigelow Dodge of British Army to Marry Mrs. Minerva Sherman.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Col. John Bigelow Dodge, of the British Army, grandson of the late John Bigelow, Ambassador to France under Abraham Lincoln, obtained a license yesterday to marry Mrs. Minerva Arrington Sherman, 27 years old, of New York.

Mrs. Sherman was born in Rome, Ga., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Arrington. She obtained a divorce in Nevada in May, 1928, from Charles Austin Sherman Jr., a stock broker, whose home is in London. They said the wedding would take place today.

Injured Workman Gets $25,000.

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 3.—The State Supreme Court, en banc, yesterday awarded $25,000 damages to Benjamin S. Hamilton, workman of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana in Davison County, for injuries received Oct. 12, 1921. At the trial in Grundy County Circuit Court at Trenton, where the case was taken on a change of venue, Hamilton, a boilermaker for the company, won a verdict of $40,000 against the oil company, but the Supreme Court scaled $15,000 from this. Three of Hamilton's ribs were torn from his spine.

DEATHS

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

DEATHS

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2, 1928, at the age of 82 years.

Almstedt, Sarah D. — Died at her home, 1234 N.

THE CURB MARKET

NEW YORK STOCKS

ST. LOUIS STOCKS

CHICAGO MARKET

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The following is a complete list of securities traded in the New York Cur Exchange today giving sales, high, low and closing prices on all stocks and bonds. Symbols: X—Closing prices. O—Under rule. **—Rights. In stock sales 00 omitted. In bond sales 000 omitted.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Total transactions in bonds on the New York Stock Exchange today amounted to $4,337,000, previous day's sales, $12,380,000; weekly $14,404,000; year $2,852,000. Total transactions from Jan. 1 to date were $1,654,374,000, compared with $1,914,518,000 a year ago and $1,542,354,000 two years ago.

Quotations on all Liberty Bonds are in dollars and thirty-seconds of a dollar; that is, for instance, a sale printed 99-24 means $99 and 24 thirty-seconds of a dollar, and not $99.24.

The following is a complete list of transactions, giving sales, high, low and closing prices (in sales 00 omitted):

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

By the Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS STOCK EXCHANGE, Aug. 3.—Total sales amounted to 2441 shares, compared with 4561 shares yesterday. Bond sales were 1200 shares, compared with 1000 yesterday.

Following is a complete list of securities traded in, with dividend rates, sales, high, low, close and net changes. The closing bid and asked prices are also given.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Following is a list of sales, high, low and closing prices of securities traded in on the Chicago Stock Exchange today. Stock sales in full. Bond sales 000 omitted:

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

Low. Close. Change.

REDUCTION IN PERSONNEL OF E. ST. LOUIS PARK

Louis Railway Co.

An indefinite leave of absence has been given W. C. Myer, fiscal superintendent. The resignation of F. O. Whiteman as assistant superintendent of transportation has been accepted and E. S. Davis, formerly assistant superintendent of transportation, has replaced him. L. G. Lake, storekeeper, has resigned, and has been succeeded by J. H. Stevers, formerly assistant storekeeper. No assistant has been appointed to fill the position left vacant by those made permanent heads.

It is understood that the salary for the change is that a new staff is required due to a projected decrease in the company business and the recent ab-

Dentab

The NEW Right Way clean your teeth
At all Druggists 25¢

ced

No matter what your personal convictions may be, you should be interested in Mrs. Wilbrandt's outspoken close-up view of "The Inside of Prohibition." Her story will be published in daily installments, beginning next Monday in the

Mrs. Willebrandt's story gives a vivid picture of Prohibition conditions, as seen by the one person who knows most about the workings of the Volstead Law. As Assis-

No matter what your personal convictions may be, you should be interested in Mrs. Wilbrandt's outspoken close-up view of "The Inside of Prohibition." Her story will be published in daily installments, beginning next Monday in the

A black and white illustration in a graphic, high-contrast style. On the right, a man in a light-colored suit and dark shoes is walking towards the left, pointing a handgun at the other man. His shadow is cast onto the wall behind him. On the left, a man in a dark suit is running away from the viewer and towards the left. A small, dark object, possibly a shoe or a bag, lies on the floor between them. The background consists of a wall with a grid-like pattern of rectangular blocks. The overall style is reminiscent of mid-20th-century graphic design or a stylized comic book illustration.

BROWNS
Lefty Gro
LU BLUE HI
HOMER IN 20,000

By James M.
Of the Post-Dispatch

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—The Athletics played to an 8-8 tie this afternoon after an eighth inning, although it had

The Browns drove Lefty Grove out the mound in the first inning after two outs, getting six straight hits. Yerkes succeeded him and was replaced by Jack Quinn after he had issued a base on balls. Quinn worked until the eighth, when the Browns scored three more, and George Earnshaw succeeded him.

After the score had been tied by the A's in the eighth or Simmons' fourth single and the inning ended, it was decided to call off the game, which had been scheduled as the first contest of a double-header. The two teams will play a double-header Monday.

The weather was threatening but 20,000 persons in this pennant-mad town turned out.

FIRST INNING — BROWNS —
 Blue grounded to Bishop. O'Rourke flied to Miller. Manush doubled to center and went to third on a passed ball. Schulte singled to center, scoring Manush. Kress tripled to right, scoring Schulte.
 McNeely singled to center, scoring Kress. Melillo singled to right, McNeely stopping at second. It the fifth straight hit off Grove. Schang singled to left for the sixth straight hit and McNeely scored. Schulte went to third and Schang to second on a wild pitch. Grove was replaced by Yerkes, another left-hander. Hale threw out Gray.

FOUR RUNS.

ATHLETICS—Bishop was safe when McNeely dropped his line drive to Schulte. Cochrane ingled to left, sending Bishop to third. Foxx singled to center, scoring Bishop and putting Simmons on third. Miller singled to left, scoring Simmons and moving Foxx to third. Hale struck out. TWO RUNS.

SECOND — BROWNS — Blue walked. After pitching one bad ball to O'Rourke Yerkes was taken out and Quinn went in to pitch for

At this point, O'Rourke angled to the left, sending Boley to third. Blue stepped on Manush's sacrifice fly to first and run down Quinn to second. Boley to Foss. Schulte out to Quinn, on first. ONE RUN.

ATHLETICS—Boley popped to Schulte. Quinn was called out on a strike. Quinn was called out on a strike. Quinn was called out on a strike.

was still raining hard as McNeely threw out Haas. WIND-BROWNS—Kress flied Haas. McNeely fouled to Cochrane. Bishop threw out McNeely. ATHLETICS—Cochrane bunted to left, sending Cochrane to third. Foxx popped to Mellillo. Miller hit to Gray, who threw to double play, made a wild throw to Miller. Cochrane scoring. Simons being safe at second and Hale at first. Hale hit into a double play, Kress to Melillo to Quinn. ONE RUN.

FOURTH—BROWNS— Schang hit to Miller. Gray flied to Simons. Blue bounded to Fox. ATHLETICS— Boloy flied to Quinn. Quinn was again called

FIFTH—BROWNS—Cochrane
a fine catch of O'Rourke's Manush was hit by a pitched Schulte lined to Haas. Kress back out.
ATHLETICS—Haas popped to Cochrane walked. Simmons red to Melillo. Foxs beat out to deep short. Cochrane stop-

IN PERSONNEL
ST. LOUIS RAILWAY personnel, affecting ment heads and four have gone into the offices of the East St.
Co.
nite leave of absence ven W. C. Myers, gentendent. The resignay Whitman as super-of transportation has and E. S. Davis, for-ant superintendent of
on, has replaced him.
e, storekeeper, has has been succeeded by
rs. formerly assistant No assistants have red to fill the position by those made depar-

stood that the reason is that a smaller dred due to a contine in the company
the recent abandontain interurban line
a reduction of opera-

hs to June 30 vs. 21
ago.
ntabs
W Right Way to your teeth
Druggists 25¢

SPORTS

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

The Only Evening Newspaper in St. Louis With the Associated Press News Service

Stock Market
Closing Prices
Complete Sales
TABLES IN PART 1, PAGES 8, 9.

PAGES 11-14

ST. LOUIS, SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1929.

PRICE 2 CENTS

BROWNS 8, ATHLETICS 8 (Called After 8th); CARDINALS 7, BRAVES 5

Lefty Grove Batted Out in First Inning; McKechnie and Wilson Banished

LU BLUE HITS HOMER IN SEVENTH; 20,000 AT GAME

By James M. Gould
Of the Post-Dispatch Staff.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—The Browns and the league-leading Athletics played to an 8-8 tie this afternoon, the game being called after an eighth inning, although it had been pouring down from the second.

The Browns dug Lefty Grove off the mound in the first inning after two outs, getting six straight hits. Yerkes succeeded him and was replaced by Jack Quinn after he had issued a base on balls. Quinn worked until the eighth, when the Browns scored three more, and George Earnshaw succeeded him.

After the score had been tied by the A's in the eighth or Simmons fourth single and the inning ended, it was decided to call off the game, which had been scheduled as the contest of a double-header. The two teams will play a double-header Monday.

The weather was threatening but 20,000 persons in this pennant-made even turned out.

FIRST INNING — BROWNS — Blue grounded to Bishop. O'Rourke hit to Miller. Manush doubled to center and went to third on a passed ball. Schulte singled to center, scoring Manush. Kress singled to right, scoring Schulte. McNeely singled to center, scoring Kress. Melillo singled to right, scoring McNeely.

SECOND — BROWNS — Blue walked. After pitching one bad ball to O'Rourke Yerkes was taken out and Quinn went in to pitch for him. It was raining hard at this point. O'Rourke singled to left, scoring Blue. Blue walked on Manush's sacrifice fly to Simmons. O'Rourke was caught off first and run down. Quinn to Blue to Foley to Fox. Schulte to Quinn, on first. ONE RUN.

THIRD — BROWNS — Kress fouled to Haas. McNeely fouled to Cochrane. Bishop threw out McNeely.

FOURTH — BROWNS — Cochrane bunted toward third. Simmons singled to left, sending Cochrane to second. Fox popped to Melillo. Blue hit to Gray, who trying for a double play, made a wild throw. Second, Cochrane scoring. Simmons being safe at second and Blue at first. Hale hit into a double play, Kress to Melillo to Gray. ONE RUN.

FIFTH — BROWNS — Schang hit to Miller. Gray flied to Simmons. Blue grounded to Fox. Athletics — Boxy tried to steal. Quinn was again called out on strikes. Melillo threw out Boxy.

SIXTH — BROWNS — Cochrane fouled to Haas. Fox hit to Miller. Manush was hit by a pitched ball. Schulte flied to Haas. Kress hit to Miller. Melillo flied to Gray. ONE RUN.

SEVENTH — BROWNS — Blue hit over the right field fence for a home run. Boxy threw out O'Rourke. Manush flied to Miller. Schulte batted to a slow roller to Boxy. Kress doubled to left, scoring Boxy. Schulte, and when Hale made a wild throw to the Browns, French batted for Hale and singled to center. Miller stopping at second. Rain was falling more heavily than ever as Boxy struck out. Orville batted for Quinn and popped to Melillo. Bishop grounded to Melillo. THREE RUNS.

EIGHTH — BROWNS — Earnshaw was the fourth pitcher for the Athletics and Cronin went in. O'Brien was out. Fox to Earnshaw, on first. Blue flied to Fox. O'Rourke was called out on strikes. Athletics — Haas tripled to right. Melillo made a great catch of Cochrane's fly in short left. Simmons singled to center for his fourth hit, and Haas scored the tying run. The rain was now alternating a cloudburst. Fox hit into a double play, O'Brien to Melillo to Blue. ONE RUN.

Baseball Scores

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R.H.E.
CHICAGO AT BOSTON
2 0 9 1 0 0 0 1 2 15 19 1
BOSTON
0 0 0 2 0 0 2 0 0 4 7 6
Batteries: Chicago—Thomas and Berg; Boston—Furline and Berry.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R.H.E.
BROOKLYN AT CHICAGO
1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 2 8 0
CHICAGO
2 0 2 2 1 3 0 2 X 12 15 0
Batteries: Brooklyn—McWerry and Heinle; Chicago—Carlson and Taylor.

PHILADELPHIA AT CINCINNATI

0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 6 1
CINCINNATI
1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 7 2
Batteries: Philadelphia—Briggs and Leary; Cincinnati—Lance and Gooch.

Postponed Games.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Browns at Philadelphia: second game postponed, rain.
Detroit at Washington: rain.
Cleveland at New York: rain.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York at Pittsburgh: rain.

KENNETH MEYERS WINS AMERICAN SCULLING TITLE

By the Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 3.—Kenneth Meyer of Philadelphia today became the single sculls champion of America by defeating Joe Wright, Canadian champion and former holder of the diamond sculls, by a length in the National Rowing Association's mile and a quarter classic on the Connecticut River course. Russell Codman of the Union Boat Club, Boston, the other starter, crossed the finish line eight lengths behind the Canadian.

Meyer's time was 5m 18 4/5 s, slow because he bucked a head wind. Emanuel J. MacGregor, of the Bachelors' Barge Club, Philadelphia, today defended his national sprinting sculls championship by defeating his clubmate, W. E. Garrett Gilmore, by a half length.

The South Side Boat Club crew of Quincy, Ill., led the Pennsylvania Barge Club crew of Philadelphia, across the finish line by a good four lengths in the senior four-oared shells without coxswain. The South Siders' time for the mile and a quarter was 7 minutes 43 2/5 seconds. The first starter, the Minnesota Boat Club of St. Paul, trailed the victor by almost a dozen lengths.

The Undine Barge Club, lightweight, uncorked a beautiful last-minute spurt to defeat the Detroit Boat Club crew by a good length in the senior 143-pound eight-oared shell event. The victors' time for the mile and a quarter was 7 minutes 13 3/5 seconds.

The IF Table

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
W. L. Pct. Win. Loss.
Philadelphia 74 26 740 743 733
New York 60 35 632 635 625
BROWNS 53 46 533 540 520
Cleveland 53 47 530 535 525
Detroit 47 52 475 480 470
Washington 38 57 400 406 396
Chicago 38 52 388 392 382
Boston 39 59 303 310 300

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
W. L. Pct. Win. Loss.
Chicago 64 31 674 677 667
Pittsburgh 59 37 615 619 608
New York 56 46 549 553 544
CARDS 54 49 510 515 505
Brooklyn 53 46 434 440 430
Boston 42 59 416 422 412
Cincinnati 41 58 414 420 410
Philadelphia 39 59 398 404 391

Tomorrow's Schedule

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Detroit at Washington.
Cleveland at New York.
Chicago at Boston.
Only games scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Boston at St. Louis.
Brooklyn at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Cincinnati.
Only games scheduled.

GOLDMANS GAIN 17-4 VICTORY AND WIN STATE LEGION HONORS

THE BOX SCORE

GOLDMAN JUNIORS.
AB. R. H. O. A. E.
Yonkers 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
White 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Passer 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Handley 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Butt 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Lahay 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Borenstein 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Mark 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Mass 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Schnurman 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals 43 0 0 0 0 0 0

CHILLICOTHE.
AB. R. H. O. A. E.
Gatson 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Dowell 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
McDowell 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
White 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
J. Rensch 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Ludwig 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Potts 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
F. Rensch 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Anderson 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals 34 0 0 0 0 0 0

Two-base hits—Butts, Mass 2. Three-base hits—Yonkers, Passer, Lahay. Home runs—Handley, Butts 2. Stolen bases—Passer 2, Lahay, Butts 1. Sacrifices—Handley, Passer to Butts; P. Rensch to Gatson. Passed balls—By Anderson 1, by Schnurman 1. Bases on balls—Off Anderson 7, off Schnurman 1. Struck out—By Anderson 6, by Schnurman 7. Chilled out 2. Time of game—1 1/2 hrs. Umpires—Peck Beck and Purcell.

By Damon Kerby

Of the Post-Dispatch Sports Staff.
SPORTSMAN'S PARK, Aug. 3.—The Goldmans of St. Louis won their second consecutive game here today from the Chillicothe (Mo.) Legion team to clinch the Missouri State American Legion junior baseball title. The Goldmans will represent Missouri in the regional junior tournament at Topeka, Kan., Aug. 15-16, in which St. Louis Junior champions this year have been entered in. He was scheduled for three stake engagements here. The Miller Travers and Beneca.

If the great 3-year-old from Kentucky is unable to fill the remainder of his engagements this year, he will lose a golden opportunity to gain a position among the first five leading money winners of all time. At present he is only $500 behind Display, which ranks fifth. Pitted against only four runners of mediocre ability, Blue Larkspur would have gone to the cost this afternoon at probably the shortest odds of the season on the metropolitan tracks.

The Bradley colt has gone through a hard campaign this season, winning the Frankfort Stakes, the Withers, the Belmont and the American Classic and finishing second in the Dwyer and unplaced in the Kentucky Derby. Capturing of the sheath of a tendon probably means that the son of Black Swan-Blossom Time will not get in shape even for late fall engagements. His next big race was the Travers Mid-Summer Derby at Saratoga, Aug. 17.

FIRST INNING — GOLDMANS — Yonkers struck out, but reached first on a passed ball. Passer forced Yonkers, Anderson to P. Rensch to Gatson. Passer stole second. Handley struck out. Butts fouled to J. Rensch.

CHILLICOTHE—Gatson lined to Passer. Dowell grounded to Handley. McDowell grounded to Handley.

SECOND — GOLDMANS—Lahay walked. Lahay stole second. Weinstein also walked. Mark walked, filling the bases. Mass tripled to center, scoring Lahay. Borenstein and Mark. Schnurman struck out. Yonkers fouled to Potts. Passer tripled to right, scoring Mass. Handley singled. Gatson hit to deep center for a home run, scoring behind Handley. Gatson threw out Lahay. SEVEN RUNS.

THIRD — GOLDMANS—White singled to left. J. Rensch singled to left. White stopped at second. Ludwig walked, filling the bases. Potts singled to center, scoring White and J. Rensch and Ludvig went to third and Potts to second. When Mark fumbled the throw to the plate, P. Rensch filed to Borenstein whose throw to Handley doubled Potts off second. Ludvig scored. Anderson grounded to Butts. THREE RUNS.

THIRD — GOLDMANS—J. Rensch made a leaping catch of Borenstein's liner. Mark fouled to Weinstein whose throw to Handley doubled Potts off second. Ludvig scored. Anderson grounded to Butts. THREE RUNS.

BOEHMER, EGGMAN AND MARTIN TO COMPETE IN MEMPHIS NET MEET
Three district tennis players, Gustav Boehmer Jr., Ted Eggman, and Joe Martin, will compete in the Tennessee State tournament, starting Monday, at Memphis. Boehmer is district junior singles champion.

Reed Beats Harris
ERIE, Pa., Aug. 3.—Jimmy Reed, Erie, won a decision last night over Sammy Harris, Akron, O., in a bout here. Leo Moseley, Erie, defeated Johnny Edwards, Columbus, O., in eight rounds.

May Be Out for Campaign

BLUE LARKSPUR, E. R. Bradley's 3-year-old champion, which was injured while working out for the Miller Stakes at Saratoga.

BLUE LARKSPUR INJURED; MAY BE OUT FOR SEASON

CARUSO WINS $14,000 STAKE AT SARATOGA

By the Associated Press.
SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Blue Larkspur, 3-year-old champion of the E. R. Bradley stakes, was scratched today and probably will be out for at least the balance of the season, after trainers found themselves unable to put him in shape for the Miller stakes, scheduled for today. He ruptured the sheath of a tendon yesterday morning while being worked out by Johnny Malben.

Blue Larkspur has earned $220,420 in the 12 races he has been entered in. He was scheduled for three stake engagements here. The Miller Travers and Beneca.

If the great 3-year-old from Kentucky is unable to fill the remainder of his engagements this year, he will lose a golden opportunity to gain a position among the first five leading money winners of all time. At present he is only $500 behind Display, which ranks fifth. Pitted against only four runners of mediocre ability, Blue Larkspur would have gone to the cost this afternoon at probably the shortest odds of the season on the metropolitan tracks.

The Bradley colt has gone through a hard campaign this season, winning the Frankfort Stakes, the Withers, the Belmont and the American Classic and finishing second in the Dwyer and unplaced in the Kentucky Derby. Capturing of the sheath of a tendon probably means that the son of Black Swan-Blossom Time will not get in shape even for late fall engagements. His next big race was the Travers Mid-Summer Derby at Saratoga, Aug. 17.

BOEHMER, EGGMAN AND MARTIN TO COMPETE IN MEMPHIS NET MEET
Three district tennis players, Gustav Boehmer Jr., Ted Eggman, and Joe Martin, will compete in the Tennessee State tournament, starting Monday, at Memphis. Boehmer is district junior singles champion.

Reed Beats Harris
ERIE, Pa., Aug. 3.—Jimmy Reed, Erie, won a decision last night over Sammy Harris, Akron, O., in a bout here. Leo Moseley, Erie, defeated Johnny Edwards, Columbus, O., in eight rounds.

BRANDT POUNDED BY BIRDS; FRISCH ILL; BUTLER PLAYS

By J. Roy Stockton

SPORTSMAN'S PARK, Aug. 3.—The Cardinals defeated the Braves this afternoon in the first game of the series of four. The score was 7 to 5.

Frankie Frisch reported sick today and Manager McKechnie shifted Andy High to second base and sent Johnny Butler to third. Catcher Jimmy Wilson batted third in Frisch's place with Butler batting eighth.

The smallest Saturday crowd of the season attended, not more than 2500 being in the stands when the game started. Magerkurth, Stark and Pfirman were the umpires.

FIRST INNING — BRAVES — Richbourg doubled to left. Maranville beat out a bunt down the first base line. Richbourg moving to third. Slater hit to Haas, who threw him out. Richbourg holding third. Bell walked, filling the bases. Harper doubled to right, scoring Richbourg, Maranville and Bell. Welsh popped to Gelbert. Maguire doubled to center, scoring Harper, but was out trying for third. Douthitt to Gelbert to Butler. FOUR RUNS.

CARDINALS—Douthitt singled to center. High doubled to right center. Douthitt stopping at third. Wilson doubled to right center, scoring Douthitt and High. Maranville went to the foul line for a good catch of Bottomley's pop fly. Orsatti struck out. Roettger hit down the left field foul line for the sixth double of the game, scoring Wilson. Gelbert was called out on strikes. THREE RUNS.

SECOND — BRAVES — Spohrer popped to Gelbert. In short left. Brandt flied to Roettger. Richbourg singled to center, Maranville lined to Orsatti.

CARDINALS—Butler lined to Maranville. Hald singled to right. Douthitt singled to left. Hald stopping at second. High beat out a grounder to Slater and when Slater made a high throw to Brandt covering first, Hald scored and Douthitt reached third. Wilson doubled to left, scoring Douthitt and High, and when Spohrer fumbled the throw to the plate, Wilson went to third. Bottomley popped to Maranville. Wilson tried to steal home and was out. Brandt to Spohrer. THREE RUNS.

THIRD — BRAVES—Wilson and McKechnie protested the decision. When Wilson was thrown out at the plate and Wilson was put out of the game, Jonnard taking his place behind the plate. Manager McKechnie was ordered off the field for his part of the argument. When he left, McKechnie put Gabby Street in charge of the game. Slater singled to right. Hald tossed out Bell. Harper walked. Welsh flied to Douthitt. Maguire forced Harper. Gelbert to High.

CARDINALS—Leverette went in to pitch for the Braves. Slater threw out Orsatti. Leverette covering first. Maranville made a great stop behind second and threw out Roettger. Gelbert drove deep to Welsh.

FOURTH — BRAVES—Spohrer singled to center. Leverette forced Spohrer. Hald to Gelbert. Richbourg doubled to right center for his third straight hit. Slater stopping at third. Maranville hit to Butler, and Leverette was run down. Butler to Jonnard. Richbourg reaching third. Slater grounded to Bottomley.

CARDINALS—Butler grounded to Maranville. Hald lined deep to Welsh. Douthitt struck out.

FIFTH — BRAVES—Bell hit into the right center field pavilion for a home run. Harper grounded to Bottomley. Welsh scratched a grounder past High. Maguire flied to Roettger. Spohrer fouled to Jonnard. ONE RUN.

CARDINALS—High singled to center for his third straight hit. Jonnard sacrificed. Slater unassisted. Maguire threw out Bottomley. High moving to third. Orsatti grounded to Maranville.

SIXTH — BRAVES—Gelbert threw out Richbourg. Maranville singled to left. Slater singled to right, sending Maranville to third. Bell walked, filling the bases. Harper grounded to Bottomley.

CARDINALS—Maguire threw out Roettger. Gelbert grounded to Maranville. Butler struck out.

SEVENTH — BRAVES—Welsh singled to center. Maguire struck out. Spohrer doubled to left. Welsh stopping at third. Leverette struck out. Richbourg was purposely passed, filling the bases. Maranville popped to Bottomley.

CARDINALS—Leverette threw out Hald. Douthitt popped a double in center. Welsh losing the ball in the sun. High flied to Harper. Jonnard flied to Welsh.

EIGHTH — BRAVES—Slater popped to Gelbert. Butler threw out Bell. Harper popped to Gelbert.

CARDINALS—Bottomley out, Slater to Leverette who covered first. Orsatti singled to right and continued to third on Richbourg's single. On an attempted squeeze play Roettger bunted and Orsatti was safe at the plate when Spohrer dropped Leverette's throw. Gelbert formed Roettger. Maranville to Maguire. Gelbert out stealing. Spohrer to Maguire. ONE RUN.

NINTH—The Braves failed to score.

AMERICAN WRESTLER WINS IN AUSTRALIA
MELBOURNE, Australia, Aug. 3.—Clarence Eklund, American champion of the world light-heavyweight wrestling championship, defeated George Zaryoff of Russia tonight in a one-fall match. Eklund weighed 173 pounds. Zaryoff weighed 174.

SPEED AND BOXING ABILITY ENABLE MANDELL TO RETAIN HIS TITLE

CANZONERI DRUBS CHAMPION IN FIRST TWO ROUNDS, BUT IS HELD OFF FOR REMAINDER OF CONTEST

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Tony Canzoneri, the chesty one, has gone the way of all featherweights who become too ambitious and Sammy Mandell, master ringman and boxer, is still the lightweight champion of the world.

Attempting to achieve what Johnny Kilbane, Johnny Dundee and many other featherweight compatriots failed to do, the flat nosed New York Italian gamely challenged the Rockford sheik for his heavier crown in the Chicago Stadium last night, but received nothing but a neat boxing lesson, the decision going to Mandell after 10 rounds.

Mandell won mainly by speed and boxing ability. After losing the first two rounds because of Tony's rushes and right hand attacks that caught him off guard, the champion calmly cuffed his rival with his long left and choppy rights to pile up a decisive margin.

Tony had a chance only in those first two rounds and it was the best chance any challenger ever had against Mandell. But he couldn't follow it up. Mandell's defensive craft nullified Canzoneri's fiery charges and often the New Yorker saw his punches fly into space.

Tony's Face Is Puffed Up. Mandell's accurate left hand, called the best in the business, fired sharply and true to the challenger's face and at the final round Tony's face was well puffed up. No blood was shed by the challenger, however, even though Sammy concentrated his attack on the cut over Tony's eye, suffered in his first bout as a lightweight against Phil McGraw in New York three weeks ago.

Mandell had difficulty in warming up to the task of turning back the challenge of the Italian and as a result the Canzoneri followers were chiller in the first two rounds. Tony surprised by coming out in the first round and scoring a series of stiff rights to the face, Sammy was cold and he went into a clinch when in danger. His left wasn't well oiled and absence from the ring had hurt his aim. As a consequence, Canzoneri for a time made good his boast of being able to keep away from Mandell's best weapon.

A sweeping overhead right rocked the champion several times in those first two rounds. Sammy had trouble dodging the clubbing blows and he fought a very cautious fight against the ambitious contender.

The third was the turning point and in that session the real Mandell went to work. Canzoneri didn't have a chance thereafter, but he did plunge in hoping to land one paralyzing wallop to the chin.

Barry Favors Challenger. Dave Barry, central figure in the much-disputed "Fourteen count" of the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Chicago, was referee and cast his vote for Canzoneri. Judges Ed Klein and Phil Collins agreed on Mandell as winner. Collins was third man in the ring when Mandell won the lightweight championship from Rocky Kansas here on July 4, 1926.

More than 24,000 witnessed the fight. An unofficial statement of receipts placed the gross receipts at $165,000. Of this sum, Mandell receives 40 per cent and Canzoneri receives 20 per cent.

The champion was far from satisfied with his performance even though he won, while the challenger said he thought he had won.

"I just couldn't get started," Sammy said. "I was cold at the start and not until the final round did I feel anything like my old self. But I won and that was my plan."

"I thought I had won," Tony said. "I piled up a good margin in the first two rounds and had Mandell in a bad way and he held him at least even the rest of the way. Mandell is a great boxer."

If Mandell carries out his announced intentions he will next attempt to get a match with Jackie Fields for the welterweight title. He outpointed Fields before he won the welterweight title and is confident he can repeat.

Minor League Standings

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
Kan. City 70-24-27	St. Louis 46-27-47
St. Paul 68-28-29	Chicago 42-30-40
Omaha 40-45-44	Indianapolis 40-45-44
Wichita 40-45-44	St. Paul 68-28-29

WESTERN LEAGUE

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
Omaha 40-45-44	St. Paul 68-28-29
Wichita 40-45-44	St. Paul 68-28-29
Wichita 40-45-44	St. Paul 68-28-29

TEXAS LEAGUE

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO — Sammy Mandell, world lightweight champion, outpointed Tony Canzoneri, New York (10). Luis Vicentini, Chile, outpointed Ray Miller, Chicago (10). Andy Callahan, Boston, outpointed Basil Galliano, Baltimore (8). Ray Allen, Camden, N. J., outpointed Kurt Prenzel, Germany (8). Sailor Fay Kosky, San Francisco, outpointed Harry Labarre, St. Paul (6).

NEW YORK — Dr. Ludwig Haymann, Germany, knocked out Eddie Johnson, Boston (11). Hubby Goldstein, New York, knocked out Cuddy Demarco, Pittsburgh, Pa. (4).

DETROIT — Johnny Melillo, Detroit, outpointed Eddie Reed, Philadelphia (10).

BRISBANE, Australia — Dick Corbett, London, outpointed Picky Silverberg, New York (15).

NEWARK, N. J. — Phil Goldstein, Pittsburgh lightweight, outpointed Harry Scott, of Atlantic City, N. J. (10). Paulie Walker outpointed Mickey Chapin, Scranton, Pa., welterweight, (10).

Week-End Fishing Spots Recommended By State Wardens

Anglers seeking week end fishing spots within a 100-mile radius of St. Louis in Missouri will take comfort in the report sent to the Post-Dispatch by the Missouri State Game and Fish Commission's publicity department, in charge of Townsend Godsey.

A telegram from Jefferson City received yesterday, based on information supplied by State Game Warden E. E. Dallas, reports that practically all streams and fishing places within easy auto ride of St. Louis will be in splendid condition for fishing today and Sunday unless unexpected rains develop.

Director Godsey's report mentions the following streams and lakes:

All streams in Madison, Bollinger, Ste. Genevieve and Perry counties.

Big River, in Jefferson County.

Memme River, in Franklin County.

King's Lake, in Lincoln County.

South Fork Salt River, in Audrain County.

Asa Vase and Cedar Creeks, in Callaway County.

Crooked and Otter creeks, in Mercer County.

Spencer Creek, in Ralls County.

Breck House Slough, Smelter Lake and Weber Lake, in St. Charles County.

Creve Coeur Lake, in St. Louis County.

Minor League Results

Eastern League

Bridgeport 6, New Haven 1.	Albany 5, Pittsfield 4.
Springfield 9, Hartford 5.	(Only games scheduled.)

Western League

Tulsa 7-10, Denver 6-15.	Des Moines 10, Topeka 3.
Omaha 8, Oklahoma City 3.	Pueblo 12, Wichita 7.

Texas League

Fort Worth 6, San Antonio 1.	Shreveport 5, Houston 4.
Beaumont 5, Dallas 4.	Waco 5, Wichita Falls 4.

Three-I League

Bloomington 4, Decatur 3.	Terre Haute 7, Springfield 4.
Peoria 4, Evansville 4 (tie, called in ninth rain).	Quincy at Danville, rain.

Western Association

Fort Smith 1, Joplin 6.	Muskogee 9, Shawnee 2.
Springfield 6, Independence 3.	Quincy at Danville, rain.

American Association

Milwaukee 4, Kansas City 1.	St. Paul 7, Minneapolis 6.
Only games scheduled.

International League

Reading 6, Newark 5.	Toronto 9, Buffalo 4.
Rochester 5, Montreal 2.	Baltimore 3-10, Jersey City 2-7.

Pacific Coast League

Mission 9, Los Angeles 7.	Sacramento 5, Oakland 4.
Portland 12, Seattle 1.

Southern Association

Nashville 9, Chattanooga 4.	New Orleans 5, Atlanta 7.
Memphis 4, Little Rock 2.	Mobile 10, Birmingham 3.

Central League

Fort Wayne 6, Dayton 4.	Erie 3, Canton 1.
Springfield 16, Akron 0.

COTTON STATES LEAGUE

Hidolado 2, W. L. Pct.	Jackson 2, W. L. Pct.
Alex. 2, W. L. Pct.	Monroe 2, W. L. Pct.
Victoria 2, W. L. Pct.	Laurel 2, W. L. Pct.

CENTRAL LEAGUE

Erie 3, Canton 1.	Springfield 16, Akron 0.
Fort Wayne 6, Dayton 4.

How Sammy Mandell Successfully Defended His Title

Mandell is shown driving Canzoneri back with a smashing left to the face and preparing to shoot his right to Tony's body. That tells the story of the last seven rounds of the struggle in which Mandell retained his crown.

Slight Slip Can Bring Defeat In Golf Match, Jones Writes

By Bobby Jones, National Amateur and Open Golf Champion.

Success in any kind of competitive golf, match play or medal, depends a lot upon the psychological side of the game. Whether one is playing one opponent face to face or many rivals represented by the score card, there is always the danger of discouraging oneself or of encouraging the other fellow by a careless slip which is wholly unnecessary.

In 1926, George von Elm beat me in the final of the Amateur championship. The match ended on the thirty-fifth green and was fairly close all the way. There were numbers of times when I had opportunities which I could not grasp — points which might have been considered as determining the match. But I have a word to say about that match as one which was decided purely by the fact that early in the contest, through slack play, I surrendered a tremendous psychological advantage which I undoubtedly held as we went to the first tee.

I had met George twice before in national championships and each time I had beaten him, rather badly. As we greeted each other on the first tee at Baltusrol this day, I felt that George was remembering the past two matches and that all I had to do was to get an early lead. On the first hole George was a bit shaky and I won it with a four. That was exactly what I wanted and I began to feel that I was going to be able to repeat the result of our last two matches.

Unintentionally Encouraged Von Elm.

The second hole at Baltusrol is not a hard hole. Indeed it is a very easy one. Yet I have never been able to doubt that it cost me this particular match. After good drives and shaky pitch shots, we were left with George on the edge of the green and with my ball just short. I made a bad chip, stopping six or eight feet short of the hole, and George made an almost equally bad putt, running four or five feet past the hole. He held his putt after I missed mine and my hopes of a big lead early in the game received a rude shock. On the other hand, that hole could not do anything but encourage him. From that point on we were playing on even terms and his play was the better.

Clarke Griffith says that no two games are as much alike psychologically as golf and baseball. In neither game can one afford to ease up on an opponent for an instant. It is the old story of keeping the pressure on — of applying the iron hand — until there is an irrevocable break in your favor. A missed putt very often gives to an opponent all the encouragement he needs and makes of him a difficult man.

BILLY SIXTY LOSES IN WISCONSIN GOLF FINAL

KENOSHA, Wis., Aug. 3.—J. R. Anderson, Kenosha Country Club, yesterday won the Wisconsin Amateur golf championship over his home course by downing Billy Sixty, Milwaukee golf writer, five and four. The winner sank a spectacular chip shot on the thirty-second green for a birdie two to clinch the victory.

Victorally all the horses here will be shipped today to Cleveland, where a three-day meeting will open Monday.

Skerlton Wins Bout

CALGARY, Alta., Aug. 3.—Vic Skerlton of Regina won the featherweight championship of Western Canada by outpointing Al Donnelly of New Orleans here last night. In the semi-final Morris Green of San Francisco lost on a foul in the third round to Tommy Hood, the British welterweight.

RECTOR BLANKS KENNETH

RECTOR, Ark., Aug. 3.—Rector when they easily defeated Kenneth, Rector by another victory yesterday, Mo. 14 to 6. Pruet was on the mound for Rector.

RECTOR BLANKS KENNETH

RECTOR, Ark., Aug. 3.—Rector when they easily defeated Kenneth, Rector by another victory yesterday, Mo. 14 to 6. Pruet was on the mound for Rector.

RECTOR BLANKS KENNETH

RECTOR, Ark., Aug. 3.—Rector when they easily defeated Kenneth, Rector by another victory yesterday, Mo. 14 to 6. Pruet was on the mound for Rector.

RECTOR BLANKS KENNETH

SCHMELING MAY BOX HEENEY IN SEPTEMBER BOUT

By the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Joe Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling, German contender for the heavyweight championship, announced yesterday he had notified the New York Boxing Commission and Humbert Fugazy, Brooklyn promoter, that Schmeling would box Tom Heenev in Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, probably early in September.

After the Ebbets Field bout Jacobs said an attempt would be made to arrange a Schmeling-Jack Sharkey bout in New York. If the New York Boxing Commission fails to agree to Jacobs' plan to reinstate Schmeling, the manager said he would probably agree to the plan of William F. Carey, president of the Madison Square Garden Corporation, to hold a Schmeling-Sharkey bout in Detroit instead of Chicago.

Jacobs and his entire stable of fighters had their licenses suspended because of his and Schmeling's refusal to fight Phil Scott at Ebbets Field.

The announcement by Jacobs was seen as an attempt to reinstate them in New York. Schmeling's former manager, Max Buelow, signed with Fugazy for a fight in Ebbets field and left the selection of an opponent open. Because of this clause in the contract, Jacobs said they had selected Heenev as a better opponent for Schmeling.

Jacobs also said he had requested the New York Commission to permit Schmeling to sign all future contracts to box in New York in his own name. If the Ebbets Field fight takes place, it will finish the contracts signed by Buelow. Jacobs said, after which he desires Schmeling to handle his own contracts.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

Jacobs said the proposed Schmeling fight would probably be held Sept. 4.

Jacobs' announcement came after a lengthy telephone conversation with Carey, who left Detroit for New York. The manager said Carey was agreeable to the course he is suggesting to the boxing commission and that the New York promoter would go to the commission and say he would not stand in the way of fulfilling the Fugazy contract.

SPORTS SALAD

By the Associated Press.

Here They Come! A LONG-DRAWN out endurance test. In feats of aviation. In stunts of a protracted rest. Compared to an ovation.

Much fame the aviator wins. And gifts galore he's handed; But the real endurance test begins. The moment he has landed.

By men and women he is mobbed. In spite of his protectors; And even of his clothing robbed, By souvenir collectors.

He has to lead the big parade. Although for peace he's thirsting. While overhead the loud grenade Upon the air is bursting.

Severest of endurance tests. To eat the things that he detests. And try to look delighted.

He listens to loud-speakers in their flights of oratory; Endurance tests they're out to win. But that's another story.

Three weeks or so up in the sky is merely a vacation; But, boy, it takes a hardy guy To weather an ovation.

Professional Courtesy. After flying around in the St. Louis Robin for nearly three weeks Jackson and O'Brien went to the Redbird's flying field to see the cardinals handled the Brooklyn Robins.

The Brooklyn Robins didn't have a very good day, but showed the durable delineators of endless endurance how to do a tail-sip and come up standing.

Next morning the Robin waged its way to Chicago, which was just like hopping from twig to twig.

By the way, whatever has become of that stowaway who bummed his way to Paris in an airplane? Did the public give him the air?

Jackson and O'Brien had all most perfect weather all during their flights, only to run into heavy showers of confetti on landing.

Going Down. The Browns don't need a new manager. What they need is a net under them. Look out below!

The Palmer Cox aggregation is proving such a wonderful road team that the other guys are trying to ride them out of the league.

Taking the Browns the Cardinals and everything into consideration, St. Louis doesn't seem to be enjoying a banner season in baseball.

But don't forget that the Browns hold one world's record. They are the only team in both major organizations that have never won a pennant.

JIM THORPE FILES CLAIM AGAINST PYLE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 3.—C. J. Pyle, promoter of sport events, the forward recent of which was the New York-to-Los Angeles before the State Labor Commission here today with $1000 to apply on wage claims made against him.

Failure to appear with the money will result automatically in the filing of criminal proceedings against him, officers of the commission said.

Pyle was given until today to settle the claims of former members of his cross-country troupe after he forwarded $500 to the commission last Thursday, sending with it a plea for an extension of time. In the meantime another claim has been placed before the commission. James Thorpe, Indian athlete, asks $250 which he says the promoter owes him for services in the 1929 distance team.

Goldstein Drops De Maro

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Goldstein, former contender for the lightweight title, knocked out the lightweight title, known as "Cuddy Demarco, veteran fighter, Pa., welterweight, in the fourth round of their 10-round bout at the Coney Island Stadium last night. Goldstein weighed 135 lbs. Demarco 145 lbs.

Dental The most convenient of dentifrice At all Druggists 25¢

Greyhound Racing

Derby Trials Tonight

Some Tune

ACCORD REACHED TO REDUCE BRITISH CONTROL OF EGYPT

Premier and Several Ministers Make Agreement With King Fuad, Subject to Cabinet Approval.

ENGLAND TO RECALL TROOPS FROM CAIRO

Office of High Commissioner to Be Abolished—London insists on Naming of Foreign Advisers.

By JOHN L. BALDERSTON, London Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World. (Copyright, 1929, by the Press and Publishing Co., New York World and the Post-Dispatch.)

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Relinquishment of the greater part of British control over Egypt has been agreed on by Premier MacDonald, Foreign Secretary Henderson, Air Minister Thomson and King Fuad of Egypt and his ministers, subject to the approval of the British cabinet.

Points have been determined which will be incorporated in a treaty, which will not, however, be drawn up until the cabinet has sanctioned this step.

As there is no doubt that the cabinet will assent to a change in the British status in Egypt seems certain if the Labor Government lasts long enough to bring the treaty into effect. The principal terms of the proposed treaty are:

British troops, it has been agreed, will be withdrawn from Cairo and the interior and concentrated along the Suez Canal.

Egyptian troops will be admitted into Sudan, where they will act with British troops.

Consular and mixed courts will be given up, providing other Powers agree to do the same.

The office of British High Commissioner will be abolished, but Great Britain will retain a number of foreign financial and legal advisers to the Egyptian Government.

Great Britain will support Egyptian application for membership in the League of Nations.

All right of exercising domestic police powers in Egypt will be renounced by Great Britain.

RUSSIAN FLYERS TO ATTEMPT MOSCOW-NEW YORK FLIGHT
Will Go by Way of Siberia and the North Pacific; Take Off Aug. 5.

By the Associated Press. MOSCOW, Aug. 3.—Soviet Russia's most ambitious air venture, a 12,000 mile airplane flight from Moscow to New York via Siberia and the North Pacific, will start not later than Aug. 5, Alaska, assistant director of the Soviet military air force, announces.

The big plane, the "Strana Sovetov" meaning "the land of the Soviets" is ready for the flight, having shown up well through all tests. There will be a crew of four men, two pilots, and air navigator and a mechanic.

The chief pilot is Semion Alexandrovich Shestakov and his assistant is Philip Efimovich Bolotov.

Three weeks will be allowed for the flight to Petrozavodsk on the Kamchatka Peninsula, Eastern Siberia. The Trans-Russian route will touch Novosibirsk, Khabarovsk and Nikolayevsk, from Kamchatka the plane will head for the Aleutian Islands, where a Soviet supply ship will leave oil and fuel at Attu, Dutch Harbor, Unalakleet, Seward and Sitka are other points on the route to Seattle. The plans call for a visit to San Francisco before striking across the United States via Chicago for New York.

The two-motored plane, equipped with wireless, is silver colored. On both sides of the fuselage and on the upper and lower surfaces of the wings is the identification mark "U. S. S. R.-300." The head of the fuselage bears on both sides the emblem U. S. S. R.

SURVIVOR OF BOMBARDMENT OF FORT SUMTER DIES AT 100
QUINCY, Ill., Aug. 3.—Capt. William A. Tyler, thought to have been the last surviving member of the Federal garrison at Fort Sumter when it was fired on by the Confederate forces at the outbreak of the Civil War, died yesterday at the soldiers' home. He was 100 years old last Christmas.

In the late sixties Capt. Tyler was superintendent of the Arlington Cemetery at Washington, but later rejoined the army and went through several Indian campaigns. He married Mrs. Martha Jellis here on Memorial day in 1927.

FOSSILS OF PREHISTORIC FRUIT
Specimens 25,000 Years Old From Africa to Be Studied in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Charred fruits and charcoal 25,000 years old, from North Africa, were brought to Chicago yesterday by Prof. Alfonso W. Pond, assistant curator of the Frank G. Logan Museum at Beloit, Wis. A study of them is to be made at once to determine the kinds of trees grown in that region in prehistoric times.

Contest Winner Does Not Expect to Be an Edison

Wilbur S. Huston, Son of Bishop at Olympia, Wash., Made Grade of 92 on Inventor's Questionnaire

By the Associated Press. WEST ORANGE, N. J., Aug. 2.—Selected from among the youth of the nation as the protégé of Thomas A. Edison, 16-year-old Wilbur S. Huston has no illusions he ever will be as great a man as the famous inventor.

After announcement of his winning the Edison scholarship, he said: "I wish to correct the erroneous impression that anyone can be selected as successor to Thomas A. Edison. I am not foolish enough to think I ever can be as great as he is."

The son of Bishop S. Arthur Huston of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

By the Associated Press. WEST ORANGE, N. J., Aug. 2.—Selected from among the youth of the nation as the protégé of Thomas A. Edison, 16-year-old Wilbur S. Huston has no illusions he ever will be as great a man as the famous inventor.

After announcement of his winning the Edison scholarship, he said: "I wish to correct the erroneous impression that anyone can be selected as successor to Thomas A. Edison. I am not foolish enough to think I ever can be as great as he is."

The son of Bishop S. Arthur Huston of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

He has never been a Boy Scout, or a member of the Y. M. C. A. His hobby is collecting specimens of marine biology. He was on the fencing team of Lakeside School at Seattle. He has never smoked. His favorite reading is biography.

He was revealed by the questionnaire as one who would sacrifice comfort for success, but who, in health, happiness, love, riches or reputation.

He thinks a lie permissible to save others from serious trouble, pain and grief, if "you do not benefit yourself in any way."

He is a member of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia, Wash., made a mark

of 92 in the searching Edison questionnaire, to which the 49 competing youths were subjected. He was the last to finish.

DOCTOR ROBBED OF CAR, $10 AND INSTRUMENTS

Bertram Bersche Held Up on Wells Drive in Forest Park.

Dr. Bertram Bersche, 4038 Humphrey street, reported that he was robbed of his automobile, $10 cash and surgical instruments valued at $100 by a robber who held him up on Wells drive in Forest Park at 1:50 a. m. today.

Dr. Bersche said he was seated in the machine with a woman, whom he declined to name.

Thomas Lumpkin, 4406 Garfield avenue, fired six shots at a burglar who he found crawling through a window at 2 o'clock this morning. Lumpkin believes the prowler was a Negro.

Martin Jenkins, 1827 1/2 North Newstead avenue, frightened away a prowler who sought to enter the Jenkins home at 2:30 a. m. A short time later Patrolman Crabtree fired two shots at a Negro, who ran when Crabtree sought to question him near the Jenkins home.

Lovi Cirone, 709A South Broadway, reported that he was robbed of $51 by two men who held him up at Twelfth street and Park avenue at 8:30 o'clock last night.

Edward Guess, manager of a Piggy Wigly store at 2906 Marcus avenue, was held up in the store and robbed of $70 by two armed men at 4 p. m. yesterday.

The Pennibakers were married at Bedford, Ia., last June. His first wife died in November, 1927, five months after their marriage. Her death was investigated, but no inquest was held.

AMUSEMENTS
BASEBALL TODAY
SPORTSMAN'S PARK
Cardinals vs. Boston Game Starts at 3 O'clock
BOSTON HERE TOMORROW
Tickets on Sale at Board Bldg., Mezzanine Floor.

MUNICIPAL OPERA
TONIGHT
THE VICTOR REBERTS TIME AT THE MUNY
OPERA
FIRST WEEK
Including Sunday

ENCHANTRESS
Tonight
First WEEK
Including Sunday

Vagabond King
Tonight
First
WEEK
Including Sunday

RESERVED SEATS, 25c, 50c, $1.00, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00, $8.00, $9.00, $10.00, $11.00, $12.00, $13.00, $14.00, $15.00, $16.00, $17.00, $18.00, $19.00, $20.00, $21.00, $22.00, $23.00, $24.00, $25.00, $26.00, $27.00, $28.00, $29.00, $30.00, $31.00, $32.00, $33.00, $34.00, $35.00, $36.00, $37.00, $38.00, $39.00, $40.00, $41.00, $42.00, $43.00, $44.00, $45.00, $46.00, $47.00, $48.00, $49.00, $50.00, $51.00, $52.00, $53.00, $54.00, $55.00, $56.00, $57.00, $58.00, $59.00, $60.00, $61.00, $62.00, $63.00, $64.00, $65.00, $66.00, $67.00, $68.00, $69.00, $70.00, $71.00, $72.00, $73.00, $74.00, $75.00, $76.00, $77.00, $78.00, $79.00, $80.00, $81.00, $82.00, $83.00, $84.00, $85.00, $86.00, $87.00, $88.00, $89.00, $90.00, $91.00, $92.00, $93.00, $94.00, $95.00, $96.00, $97.00, $98.00, $99.00, $100.00, $101.00, $102.00, $103.00, $104.00, $105.00, $106.00, $107.00, $108.00, $109.00, $110.00, $111.00, $112.00, $113.00, $114.00, $115.00, $116.00, $117.00, $118.00, $119.00, $120.00, $121.00, $122.00, $123.00, $124.00, $125.00, $126.00, $127.00, $128.00, $129.00, $130.00, $131.00, $132.00, $133.00, $134.00, $135.00, $136.00, $137.00, $138.00, $139.00, $140.00, $141.00, $142.00, $143.00, $144.00, $145.00, $146.00, $147.00, $148.00, $149.00, $150.00, $151.00, $152.00, $153.00, $154.00, $155.00, $156.00, $157.00, $158.00, $159.00, $160.00, $161.00, $162.00, $163.00, $164.00, $165.00, $166.00, $167.00, $168.00, $169.00, $170.00, $171.00, $172.00, $173.00, $174.00, $175.00, $176.00, $177.00, $178.00, $179.00, $180.00, $181.00, $182.00, $183.00, $184.00, $185.00, $186.00, $187.00, $188.00, $189.00, $190.00, $191.00, $192.00, $193.00, $194.00, $195.00, $196.00, $197.00, $198.00, $199.00, $200.00, $201.00, $202.00, $203.00, $204.00, $205.00, $206.00, $207.00, $208.00, $209.00, $210.00, $211.00, $212.00, $213.00, $214.00, $215.00, $216.00, $217.00, $218.00, $219.00, $220.00, $221.00, $222.00, $223.00, $224.00, $225.00, $226.00, $227.00, $228.00, $229.00, $230.00, $231.00, $232.00, $233.00, $234.00, $235.00, $236.00, $237.00, $238.00, $239.00, $240.00, $241.00, $242.00, $243.00, $244.00, $245.00, $246.00, $247.00, $248.00, $249.00, $250.00, $251.00, $252.00, $253.00, $254.00, $255.00, $256.00, $257.00, $258.00, $259.00, $260.00, $261.00, $262.00, $263.00, $264.00, $265.00, $266.00, $267.00, $268.00, $269.00, $270.00, $271.00, $272.00, $273.00, $274.00, $275.00, $276.00, $277.00, $278.00, $279.00, $280.00, $281.00, $282.00, $283.00, $284.00, $285.00, $286.00, $287.00, $288.00, $289.00, $290.00, $291.00, $292.00, $293.00, $294.00, $295.00, $296.00, $297.00, $298.00, $299.00, $300.00, $301.00, $302.00, $303.00, $304.00, $305.00, $306.00, $307.00, $308.00, $309.00, $310.00, $311.00, $312.00, $313.00, $314.00, $315.00, $316.00, $317.00, $318.00, $319.00, $320.00, $321.00, $322.00, $323.00, $324.00, $325.00, $326.00, $327.00, $328.00, $329.00, $330.00, $331.00, $332.00, $333.00, $334.00, $335.00, $336.00, $337.00, $338.00, $339.00, $340.00, $341.00, $342.00, $343.00, $344.00, $345.00, $346.00, $347.00, $348.00, $349.00, $350.00, $351.00, $352.00, $353.00, $354.00, $355.00, $356.00, $357.00, $358.00, $359.00, $360.00, $361.00, $362.00, $363.00, $364.00, $365.00, $366.00, $367.00, $368.00, $369.00, $370.00, $371.00, $372.00, $373.00, $374.00, $375.00, $376.00, $377.00, $378.00, $379.00, $380.00, $381.00, $382.00, $383.00, $384.00, $385.00, $386.00, $387.00, $388.00, $389.00, $390.00, $391.00, $392.00, $393.00, $394.00, $395.00, $396.00, $397.00, $398.00, $399.00, $400.00, $401.00, $402.00, $403.00, $404.00, $405.00, $406.00, $407.00, $408.00, $409.00, $410.00, $411.00, $412.00, $413.00, $414.00, $415.00, $416.00, $417.00, $418.00, $419.00, $420.00, $421.00, $422.00, $423.00, $424.00, $425.00, $426.00, $427.00, $428.00, $429.00, $430.00, $431.00, $432.00, $433.00, $434.00, $435.00, $436.00, $437.00, $438.00, $439.00, $440.00, $441.00, $442.00, $443.00, $444.00, $445.00, $446.00, $447.00, $448.00, $449.00, $450.00, $451.00, $452.00, $453.00, $454.00, $455.00, $456.00, $457.00, $458.00, $459.00, $460.00, $461.00, $462.00, $463.00, $464.00, $465.00, $466.00, $467.00, $468.00, $469.00, $470.00, $471.00, $472.00, $473.00, $474.00, $475.00, $476.00, $477.00, $478.00, $479.00, $480.00, $481.00, $482.00, $483.00, $484.00, $485.00, $486.00, $487.00, $488.00, $489.00, $490.00, $491.00, $492.00, $493.00, $494.00, $495.00, $496.00, $497.00, $498.00, $499.00, $500.00, $501.00, $502.00, $503.00, $504.00, $505.00, $506.00, $507.00, $508.00, $509.00, $510.00, $511.00, $512.00, $513.00, $514.00, $515.00, $516.00, $517.00, $518.00, $519.00, $520.00, $521.00, $522.00, $523.00, $524.00, $525.00, $526.00, $527.00, $528.00, $529.00, $530.00, $531.00, $532.00, $533.00, $534.00, $535.00, $536.00, $537.00, $538.00, $539.00, $540.00, $541.00, $542.00, $543.00, $544.00, $545.00, $546.00, $547.00, $548.00, $549.00, $550.00, $551.00, $552.00, $553.00, $554.00, $555.00, $556.00, $557.00, $558.00, $559.00, $560.00, $561.00, $562.00, $563.00, $564.00, $565.00, $566.00, $567.00, $568.00, $569.00, $570.00, $571.00, $572.00, $573.00, $574.00, $575.00, $576.00, $577.00, $578.00, $579.00, $580.00, $581.00, $582.00, $583.00, $584.00, $585.00, $586.00, $587.00, $588.00, $589.00, $590.00, $591.00, $592.00, $593.00, $594.00, $595.00, $596.00, $597.00, $598.00, $599.00, $600.00, $601.00, $602.00, $603.00, $604.00, $605.00, $606.00, $607.00, $608.00, $609.00, $610.00, $611.00, $612.00, $613.00, $614.00, $615.00, $616.00, $617.00, $618.00, $619.00, $620.00, $621.00, $622.00, $623.00, $624.00, $625.00, $626.00, $627.00, $628.00, $629.00, $630.00, $631.00, $632.00, $633.00, $634.00, $635.00, $636.00, $637.00, $638.00, $639.00, $640.00, $641.00, $642.00, $643.00, $644.00, $645.00, $646.00, $647.00, $648.00, $649.00, $650.00, $651.00, $652.00, $653.00, $654.00, $655.00, $656.00, $657.00, $658.00, $659.00, $660.00, $661.00, $662.00, $663.00, $664.00, $665.00, $666.00, $667.00, $668.00, $669.00, $670.00, $671.00, $672.00, $673.00, $674.00, $675.00, $676.00, $677.00, $678.00, $679.00, $680.00, $681.00, $682.00, $683.00, $684.00, $685.00, $686.00, $687.00, $688.00, $689.00, $690.00, $691.00, $692.00, $693.00, $694

RS $6,300,000
OF SUSQUEHANNA

Latter Road to Be stockholders Accept proposal.

Aug. 3.—The Bal-to Railroad has are for preferred and is of the Buffalo & Railroad, E. D. Bar-of the Buffalo & disclosed yesterday.
if consumed, will penditure of $6,300, said he had recom-
the stockholders ac-conditional upon the
the Interstate Commission.

re & Ont. offer was line with the plan
the interests to es-railroad from New go.

& Susquehanna is a
of coal and coke.

AY THEATERS

COOL

LARGEST COOLING SYSTEM

WISTFUL SPOKEN DRAMA

nce—Never ever a More he Greatest

Iden

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

manians FLAME"
Conductor

uth ARM" of

AY
INDEX
NT CO.
RES

ADOLPHE MENAUI in
"FASHIONS IN LOVE"

A Talkie, "NO RE-
FENSE," with Momi
Bue & Laura Le Flau-Biking—Stirling—Dancing
THE RAINBOW MAN," That You'll Truly En-
m.

"LOVE AND THE DAY"
with M. J. O'S-HILES.

George Bancroft in an all talkie, "THUNDERBOLTS" the London Passions in ROBS."

Lon Chaney in "WHERE EAST IS EAST," Cooling System!

McVoy Talks in "Stolen Kisses," and "The Kid's Cleverest Trick."

Betty Bronson Talks in
"One Stolen Night" and an Chaney in "Where East Is East."

Monte Blue Talks in "NO REFENSE" and "Prepare to Suffer!"

Edward McLaughlin in "CAP-TAIN LASH," Cooling System!

Bord in "High Vol-age" and "Hunting Twer."
Big Stage Show.

One Against the World
The Lariat Kid
to Comedy and News.

n. Haines in "The Highage" and "Mou-gue." Also Fritz Nicks.

STAR CAST in
"PREP AND PER."
Also Comedy.

Four Acts Vandeville and MAY MAYOT in
"STOLEN KISSES."

Bill Jennings in "The yest" and Bob Steele in the Amazing Vandeville.

Large Novel in "George Washington Caber," the Acts of Vandeville.

Water Combs in "Tail & Bill Cody in "Eyes the Underworld."

ti-Silent Double Feature Truman, Earl Danco, K. Arthur and "ALL AT SEA," a feature, first showing "The Shakedown," Barbara Kent, Also
edy. First Show Six.

Pathé Mackall and Bob Steele in "Two Women
Also "Border Wilder."

ping the "Lump" and Mits in "KING OF THE
A U (come).

Fiction—Fashions Household Topics and Women's Features

SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1929.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH DAILY MAGAZINE

Popular Comics
News Photographs

SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1929. PAGE 15

A LITTLE DISTURBANCE AT THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

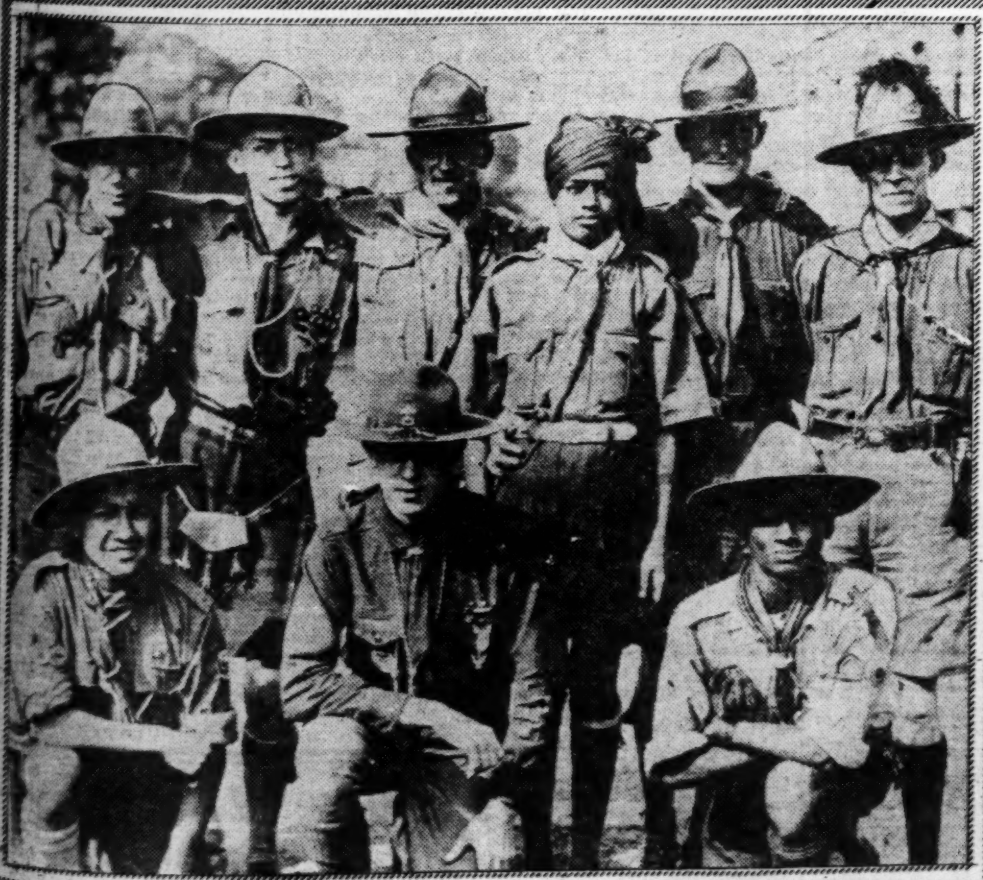

GUATEMALA FLYER IN THE CAPITAL

Col. Garcia Granados, good-will aviator from the Central American republic, welcomed in Washington by Assistant Secretary of War Davidson.

BOY SCOUTS FROM MANY LANDS

A group at the big jamboree in London. In the upper row are scouts from New Zealand, South Africa, London, India and Australia. Below, are representatives from Chile, the United States and Ceylon.

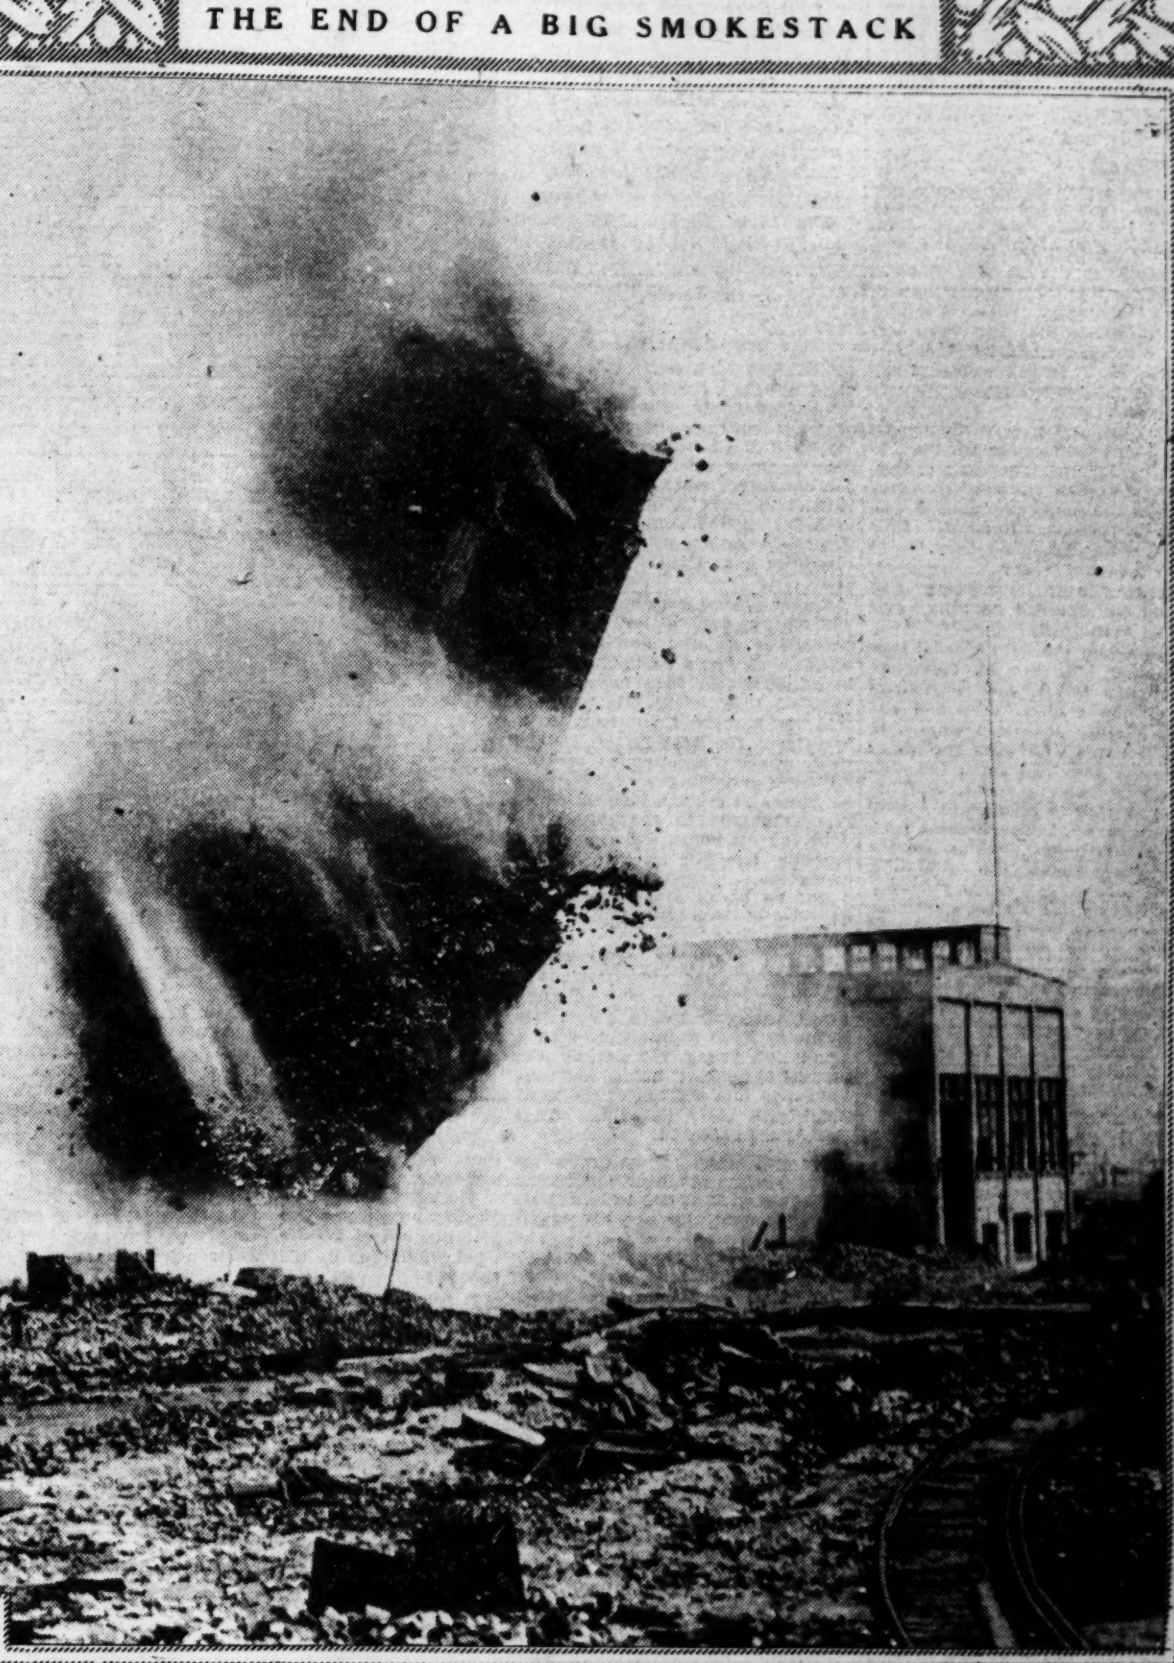

Unemployed in London stage a demonstration not liked by the Cabinet Minister, and so the police encourage the callers to move on.

This huge column of brick, 365 feet high, and weighing 4000 tons, was disrupted by an explosive and brought to earth during the dismantling of a plant at Constable Hook, N. J.

NEWEST STATUE IN WASHINGTON

Bronze of President Buchanan placed last week in Meridian Hill Park.

THE END OF A BIG SMOKESTACK

GETTING READY FOR BIG DAIRY SHOW

Huge structure on Oakland avenue, opposite Forest Park, nearing completion.

PILOT OF FRANCE'S "ROBIN"

Mlle. Maryse Bastie, who has made a new record for endurance flight by a woman—26 hours and 46 minutes. Miss Eleanor Smith, the American flyer, held the previous record.

HUMOR ON A BANK BUILDING

Stone figure of a "yegg" which has been placed in the outside wall of a savings bank in Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE WAY OF A WOMAN

By Marguerite M. Marshall.

MARRIED WORKING WOMEN.

CHAMPIONS of the married woman who works outside her home for money may uphold her—rightfully, we think—on grounds of abstract right; but a defense even harder to combat is her right to work because she needs the money. That unanswerable argument has just been advanced for her again by Mary Anderson, chief of the women's bureau of the United States Department of Labor.

What aroused Miss Anderson was somebody's blithe proposal that, in the pending unemployment census, married women customarily wage-earners but now unemployed be omitted because, forsooth, they "only work for pin-money," "they are not really unemployed, since they are housewives and should be regarded as fully employed at home."

"Pin-money indeed!" snorted Miss Anderson. "I thought that old ghost was laid." She will make an official protest, in which she advises other American women to join, if wives who work for wages whenever they can get a job, and who now can't get one, are not listed as victims of unemployment.

Here is what this highest official authority on working women has to say about the fifty-fifty wife:

"All our surveys have shown, as every woman knows, that married women do not work for so-called pin-money whatever that may be. They work just as other women do, and just as men do for money because they need it. The married woman's earnings go into the family budget, as investigations made by surveys repeatedly have shown, if proof were needed of a fact so obvious."

OPPONENTS of the wage-earning married woman are invited to survey the following statistically summarized case for her:

The cost of living survey made by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics in 1918-1919, covering more than 12,000 families of wage-earners and small salaried men in 22 cities and towns, showed an average of 4.9 persons per family, with the average year's expense totaling $1424.

The husbands in these families, on the other hand, had average earnings of $1349—which means an average deficit of $85 per family.

Prof. Paul H. Douglas of the University of Chicago estimates that the "American standard" of family living in cities requires an outlay of $2000 to $2400 per year.

With such deficits of the male breadwinner to make up, does it seem remarkable that, according to the 1920 census, 23 per cent of the eight and a half million women workers in this country were married?

"It can readily be understood," Miss Anderson remarks, with a certain dryness, "just why the certain and mothers in these families go out to seek paid employment. Granting that you would prefer to keep them in their homes for the sake of their children and their husbands, and I might add, for their own long life and comfort, what are you going to do with the unquestionable fact that without the small amounts these women can earn outside, their children will go without shoes for school and their husbands face charity to help pay their bills?"

"Our Women's Bureau studies are made from life, not from theories, and we know from experience what these women are up against. Certainly it is not from pleasure that they rise before dawn to get the meals for the day, dress the children for school, start their husbands to work with a full dinner pail, and then race to a seven or eight or even nine o'clock job themselves. Not for pleasure do they come home again, after from eight to 11 hours over desk or machine, to cook and wash and tend the children at night. They go without their normal hours of sleep, neglect their health, and are old before their time."

For more of the story, for a moment or two, of the wife who collects a pay envelope?

(Copyright, 1929.)

Summer Notes

A yellow aspic salad garnished with purple grapes makes an appealing dish on a hot day.

Flies and mosquitoes are two pests that should be vigorously fought, for both are disease carriers. Effective repellents for both are obtainable, so there is no excuse for having these dangerous insects in the home.

Air in motion is more cooling, so keep the electric fan going but place it in such position that you will avoid a draught.

Fried Bacon.

Fried chopped bacon is delicious in bread stuffing for roast veal.

Fried chopped bacon gives flavor to potato salad; the bacon fat should be added as well.

Calves' liver never seems so tasty as when accompanied by several curls of crisp bacon.

Fried potatoes are nice when varied by cooking in bacon drippings and served with a sprinkling of finely chopped bacon.

All quiet on the Western Front

By Erich Maria Remarque

Paul Baumer and his soldier comrades, hardened in training camp by the abuse and persecution of Corporal Himmelstoss, are at rest behind the front. They have just returned from a wiring party where a heavy bombardment caught them in a graveyard. Corpses and coffins gave them slight protection against the terrific shelling that tore up the earth. Gas added to the horror.

CHAPTER IX.

KILLING each separate house is a tedious business when a man has a hundred. The little houses are hard and the everlasting cracking with one's finger-nails very soon becomes wearisome. So Tjaden has rigged up the lid of a boot-polish tin with a piece of wire over the lighted stump of candle. The lice are simply thrown into this little pan. Crack! and they're done for.

We sit around with our shirts on our knees, our bodies naked to the waist and our hands at work. Haie has a particularly fine brand of louse; they have a red cross on their heads. He suggests that he brought them back with him from the hospital at Thourhout, where they attended personally on a surgeon-general. He says he means to use the fat that slowly accumulates in the tin-rod for polishing his boots, and roars with laughter for half an hour at his own joke.

But he hasn't much success today; we are too preoccupied with another affair.

The rumor has materialized. Himmelstoss has come. He appeared yesterday; we've already heard the well-known voice. He seems to have overdone it with a couple of young recruits on the ploughed field at home, and unknown to him the son of the local magistrate was watching. That cooked his goose.

He will meet some surprises here. Tjaden has been meditating for hours what to say to him. Haie paws thoughtfully at his great paws and winks at me. The thrashing was the high-water mark of his life. He tells me he often dreams of it. Kropp and Muller are amusing themselves. From somewhere or other, probably the pioneer cook-house, Kropp has bagged for himself a mess-tin full of beans. Muller squirts hungrily into it but checks himself and says: "Albert, what would you do if it were suddenly peace time again?"

"There would be any civil life," says Albert bluntly.

"Well, M. I. persists Muller, 'what would you do?'"

"Clear out of this!" growls Kropp.

"Of course. And then what?"

"Get drunk," says Albert.

"Don't talk rot. I mean seriously."

"So do I," says Kropp, "what else should a man do?"

Kat becomes interested. He leaves tribute on Kropp's tin of beans, swallows some, then considers for a while and says: "You might get drunk first, of course, but then you'd take the next train for home and there. Peace time, man, Albert."

He fumbles in his oil-cloth pocket-book for a photograph and suddenly shows it all around. "My old people!" Then he puts it back and says: "Damn! Lousy war!"

"Tjaden, I command you as your superior officer. Stand up!"

"It's all very well for you to talk," I tell him. "You've a wife and children."

"True," he nods. "And I have to see to it that they've something to eat."

We laugh. "They won't lack for that. Kat, you'd scrounge it from somewhere."

Muller is insatiable and gives himself no peace. He wakes Haie Westhus out of his dream. "Haie, what would you do if it was peace time?"

"Give you a kick in the pants for the way you talk," I say. "How will it come about exactly?"

"How does the manure come on the roof?" retorts Muller laconically, and turns to Haie Westhus again.

"It is too much for Haie. He shakes his freckled head. He means when the war's over."

"Exactly. You've said it."

"Well, there'd be women of course, eh?"—Haie licks his lips.

"By Jove, yes," says Haie, his face melting. "Then I'd grab some good bum dame."

Everyone is silent. At last Muller pulls himself together and says: "And then what?"

"I pause. Then Haie explains rather awkwardly: 'If I were a non-com, I'd stay with the Prussians and serve out my time.'"

"Haie, you've got a screw loose, surely!" I say.

"Have you ever dug peat?" he retorts good naturedly. "You try it!"

Then he pulls a spoon out of the top of his boot and reaches over into Kropp's mess-tin.

"It can't be worse than digging trenches," I venture.

Haie chews and grins: "It lasts longer though. And there's no getting out of it either."

"But man, surely it's better at home,"

"Some ways," says he, and with open mouth sinks into a day-dream.

You can see what he is thinking. There is the mean little hut on the moors, the hard work on the heath from morning till night in the heat, the miserable pay, the dirty laborer's clothes.

In the army in peace time you're nothing to trouble about," he goes on, "your food's found every day, or else you kick up a row; you've a bed, every week clean underwear like a perfect gent, you do your non-com's duty, you have a good suit of clothes; in the evening you're a free man and go off to the pub."

Haie is extraordinarily set on his idea. He's in love with it.

"And when your 12 years are up and you get your pension and become a village bobby, and you can walk about the whole day."

He's already sweating on it. "And just you think how you'd be treated. Here a drink, there a pint. Everybody wants to be well in with a bobby."

"You'll never be a non-com, though, Haie," interrupts Kat.

Haie looks at him sadly and is silent. His thoughts still linger over the clear evenings in autumn, the Sundays in the heather, the village bells, the afternoons and evenings with the servant girls, the free evening hours in the ale-house.

He can't part with all these dreams so abruptly; he merely growls: "What silly questions you do ask."

He pulls his shirt over his head and buttons up his tunic.

"What would you do, Tjaden?" asks Kropp.

Tjaden thinks only of one thing: "See to it that Himmelstoss doesn't get past me."

Apparently he would like most to have him in a cage and sell to him with a club every morning. To Kropp he says warmly: "If I were in your place I'd see to it that I become a Lieutenant. Then you could grind him till he yells."

"And you, Detering?" asks Muller like an inquisitor. He's a born schoolmaster with all his questions.

Detering is sparing with his words. But on this subject he speaks. He looks at the sky and says only the one sentence: "I would go straight on with the harvesting."

Then he gets up and walks off. He is worried. His wife has to look after the farm. They've already taken away two of his horses. Kropp he says warmly: "If I were in your place I'd see to it that I become a Lieutenant. Then you could grind him till he yells."

At this moment Himmelstoss appears. He comes straight up to our group. Tjaden's face turns red. He stretches his length on the grass and shuts his eyes in embarrassment.

His guilt becomes slower. Then he marches up to us. No one makes any motion to stand up. Kropp looks up at him with interest.

He continues to stand in front of us and wait. As no one says anything he launches a "Well!"

A couple of seconds go by. Apparently Himmelstoss doesn't quite know what to do. He would like most to set us all on the run again. But he seems to have learned already that the front line isn't a parade ground. He tries it out though, and by addressing himself to one instead of to all of us hopes to get some response. Kropp is nearest, so he favors him.

"Well, you here too?"

But Albert's no friend of his. "A bit longer than you I fancy," he retorts.

The red mustache twitches: "You don't recognize me any more, what?"

Tjaden lifts his head. "I do though."

Himmelstoss turns to him: "Tjaden, isn't it?"

Tjaden lifts his head. "And do you know what you are?"

Himmelstoss is disconcerted. "Since when have we become so familiar?" I don't remember that we ever slept in the gutter together."

He has no idea what to make of the situation. He didn't expect this open hostility. But he is on his guard; someone has already gotten a shot in the back.

The question about the gutter makes Tjaden so mad that he becomes almost witty: "No, you slept there by yourself."

Himmelstoss begins to boil. But Tjaden gets in ahead of him. He must bring out his insult: "Wouldn't you like to know what you are? A dirty hound, that's what you are. I've been wanting to tell you that for a long time."

The satisfaction of months shines in his dull pig's eyes as he spits out: "Dirty hound!"

Himmelstoss let fly too, now: "What's that, you muckrake, you dirty peat-stealer? Stand up there, bring your heels together when your superior officer speaks to you."

Tjaden winks solemnly. "You take a run and jump at yourself, Himmelstoss."

Himmelstoss is a raging book of angry regulations. The Kaiser couldn't be more insulted. "Tjaden, I command you, as your superior officer: Stand up!"

"Anything else you would like?" asks Tjaden.

"Will you obey my order or not?" Tjaden replies, without knowing it, in the well-known classical phrase.

"I'll have you court-martialed," storms Himmelstoss.

We watch him disappear in the direction of the Orderly Room. Haie and Tjaden burst into a regular peat-digger's bellow. Haie laughs so much that he dislocates his jaw, and suddenly stands there helpless with his mouth wide open.

Albert has to put it back again by giving it a blow with his fist.

Kat is troubled: "If he reports you, it'll be pretty serious."

"Do you think he will?" asks Tjaden.

"Sure to," I say.

"The least you'll get will be five days' close arrest," says Kat.

That doesn't worry Tjaden. "Five days' clink are five days' rest."

"And if they send you to the Fortress?" urges the thoroughgoing Muller.

"Well, for the time being the war will be over so far as I am concerned."

Tjaden is a cheerful soul. There are any number of worries for him. He goes off with Haie and Leer so that they won't find him in the first flush of the excitement.

Continued Monday.

(Copyright, 1929, by Little, Brown & Co.)

THE PARIS MODE TODAY

As Seen in the Great Week of the Paris Season.

Special cable by Pierre Le Baux, director of the Paris Fashion Board, and E. Winifred Boulter, associate director.

PARIS, Aug. 3.

THE great week of the Paris season was a mixture of glorious sunshine and tempestuous showers. The dress display, however, was on several occasions, very smart and the outstanding note of outdoor functions such as the Prix des Dragas, the Grand Prix, various smart afternoons at the Polo de Bagatelle and private garden parties was the eclipse of the ensemble consisting of printed fabric gown and plain coat lined with the material of the dress by the all matching ensemble usually of chiffon, but sometimes of crepe de chine, with a short, three-quarter length coat matching the dress.

Short coats predominate in great numbers, and with the charming, floating lines of the chiffon frocks they form an exquisite silhouette that is likely to be perpetuated at summer dinners in the Casinos of the fashionable places.

At the Prix des Dragas one of the outstanding ensembles was a Premet, a printed chiffon by Ducharme, a large conventional tulip design in blue on a very pale blue ground. This was made with a sleeveless corsage bloused lightly over a swathed belt. The skirt had the new clinging line to the knees, whence it flared out in a full double flounce, that was encrusted in curves onto the plain skirt. It had a scalloped edge following the lines of the encrustation, and dipped ever so slightly at the back. Just enough to give an effect of movement, without any hint of unidirection. The little chiffon coat had a slight dip at the back to follow the movement of the skirt. It was finished with a loosely tied cravat collar and a straight sleeve widening slightly at the wrist.

The dress was worn by Marie Christiane, string colored lace straw to match the shoes and stockings. The brim was turned back sharply from the face all around, carved up slightly to give the new bandeau effect over the forehead, and draped to give a symmetrical outline.

A several very smart women, including Lady Orr Lewis, wore Vionnet gowns of plain crepe de chine, a new model that has vermicelli tucks in a row over the corsage, and a straight skirt with the tucks continuing down the length of a narrow belt dividing it from the corsage. Lady Orr Lewis had it in a lovely shade of china blue with Reoux's new cavalier hat in dark blue the wide turned-up brim matching the dress.

Yellow was again the leading color note, but this time in a new standing being a Chanel gown in all-over beaded fabric with a wide flared skirt flaring to the ground, many of the women wore a skirt, and a pair of white gloves with a horizontally striped high waist line, floating from shoulder cape and two long shaped panels back and front in a double flounced skirt.

On all official occasions in Paris, many of the women wore long white kid gloves, which were very loosely on the arms up to the elbow.

A very chic Augustinard ensemble was worn by Henrietta, Lady Davis. This was a beige crepe de chine, the corsage, blouse over a straight skirt, a straight little jacket (sash-d) by narrow tabs of bright blue-colored crepe de chine attached to similar tabs on the corsage.

One of the most brilliant evening functions of the Grande Semaine was the reception given by the Ambassador of Great Britain and Lady Trenchard, the President of the French Republic. The fact that the men were in uniform and that decorations were worn made the scene very colorful.

Magnificent lame gowns were worn by some of the older women, and several simply beaded. Among the most notable were the wonderful cabochon emeralds worn by Mrs. John Drexel with an emerald sash gown.

Lady Mendel, known to American guests as Mrs. de Wolfe, had a Louise Boulanger gown of a shimmering lame with the skirt edged with long panels of smoke grey tulle that brushed to the ground.

Lady Abby was extremely chic in a Chanel gown of sand colored hair. The skirt was short and round over the straight main panel to match with a long panel at one side, finished with a flounce, that hung far ahead of the ground. She wore her wonderful single-stone pear-shaped diamond pendant on a slender platinum chain.

Miss Anne Tyrrell, the Ambassador's popular daughter, who helps her mother so efficiently in receiving her guests, was dressed by Molyneux in pale blue chiffon with large self-colored poppies on the skirt which was full and long at the back. The same model was reproduced in black by the artist to illustrate Captain Molyneux's last contribution to the (Cosmos) Fashion Service.

Many of the younger women present wore lovely printed crepe gowns in large tulip designs, and the new long slim Fates hat was well represented.

Lady Coleridge who has an imposing display of war decorations wore a flowered chiffon gown in shades of grey and mauve the beautifully white hair being seen, one of the loveliest being that worn by Madame Jacques Balsan, nee Consuelo Vanderbilt, a white crystal-embroidered corsage on slim lines over a very full skirt, and a double flounce in pinking in deep points both front and back.

Black was also to be seen, an all-over beaded fabric with a wide flared skirt flaring to the ground, many of the women wore a skirt, and a pair of white gloves with a horizontally striped high waist line, floating from shoulder cape and two long shaped panels back and front in a double flounced skirt.

On all official occasions in Paris, many of the women wore long white kid gloves, which were very loosely on the arms up to the elbow.

A very chic Augustinard ensemble was worn by Henrietta, Lady Davis. This was a beige

(Copyright, 1929.)

CROSS-WORD

As Seen in the Great Week of the Paris Season.

Special cable by Pierre Le Baux, director of the Paris Fashion Board, and E. Winifred Boulter, associate director.

PARIS, Aug. 3.

THE great week of the Paris season was a mixture of glorious sunshine and tempestuous showers. The dress display, however, was on several occasions, very smart and the outstanding note of outdoor functions such as the Prix des Dragas, the Grand Prix, various smart afternoons at the Polo de Bagatelle and private garden parties was the eclipse of the ensemble consisting of printed fabric gown and plain coat lined with the material of the dress by the all matching ensemble usually of chiffon, but sometimes of crepe de chine, with a short, three-quarter length coat matching the dress.

Short coats predominate in great numbers, and with the charming, floating lines of the chiffon frocks they form an exquisite silhouette that is likely to be perpetuated at summer dinners in the Casinos of the fashionable places.

At the Prix des Dragas one of the outstanding ensembles was a Premet, a printed chiffon by Ducharme, a large conventional tulip design in blue on a very pale blue ground. This was made with a sleeveless corsage bloused lightly over a swathed belt. The skirt had the new clinging line to the knees, whence it flared out in a full double flounce, that was encrusted in curves onto the plain skirt. It had a scalloped edge following the lines of the encrustation, and dipped ever so slightly at the back. Just enough to give an effect of movement, without any hint of unidirection. The little chiffon coat had a slight dip at the back to follow the movement of the skirt. It was finished with a loosely tied cravat collar and a straight sleeve widening slightly at the wrist.

The dress was worn by Marie Christiane, string colored lace straw to match the shoes and stockings. The brim was turned back sharply from the face all around, carved up slightly to give the new bandeau effect over the forehead, and draped to give a symmetrical outline.

A several very smart women, including Lady Orr Lewis, wore Vionnet gowns of plain crepe de chine, a new model that has vermicelli tucks in a row over the corsage, and a straight skirt with the tucks continuing down the length of a narrow belt dividing it from the corsage. Lady Orr Lewis had it in a lovely shade of china blue with Reoux's new cavalier hat in dark blue the wide turned-up brim matching the dress.

Yellow was again the leading color note, but this time in a new standing being a Chanel gown in all-over beaded fabric with a wide flared skirt flaring to the ground, many of the women wore a skirt, and a pair of white gloves with a horizontally striped high waist line, floating from shoulder cape and two long shaped panels back and front in a double flounced skirt.

On all official occasions in Paris, many of the women wore long white kid gloves, which were very loosely on the arms up to the elbow.

A very chic Augustinard ensemble was worn by Henrietta, Lady Davis. This was a beige

(Copyright, 1929.)

THE great week of the Paris season was a mixture of glorious sunshine and tempestuous showers. The dress display, however, was on several occasions, very smart and the outstanding note of outdoor functions such as the Prix des Dragas, the Grand Prix, various smart afternoons at the Polo de Bagatelle and private garden parties was the eclipse of the ensemble consisting of printed fabric gown and plain coat lined with the material of the dress by the all matching ensemble usually of chiffon, but sometimes of crepe de chine, with a short, three-quarter length coat matching the dress.

Short coats predominate in great numbers, and with the charming, floating lines of the chiffon frocks they form an exquisite silhouette that is likely to be perpetuated at summer dinners in the Casinos of the fashionable places.

At the Prix des Dragas one of the outstanding ensembles was a Premet, a printed chiffon by Ducharme, a large conventional tulip design in blue on a very pale blue ground. This was made with a sleeveless corsage bloused lightly over a swathed belt. The skirt had the new clinging line to the knees, whence it flared out in a full double flounce, that was encrusted in curves onto the plain skirt. It had a scalloped edge following the lines of the encrustation, and dipped ever so slightly at the back. Just enough to give an effect of movement, without any hint of unidirection. The little chiffon coat had a slight dip at the back to follow the movement of the skirt. It was finished with a loosely tied cravat collar and a straight sleeve widening slightly at the wrist.

The dress was worn by Marie Christiane, string colored lace straw to match the shoes and stockings. The brim was turned back sharply from the face all around, carved up slightly to give the new bandeau effect over the forehead, and draped to give a symmetrical outline.

A several very smart women, including Lady Orr Lewis, wore Vionnet gowns of plain crepe de chine, a new model that has vermicelli tucks in a row over the corsage, and a straight skirt with the tucks continuing down the length of a narrow belt dividing it from the corsage. Lady Orr Lewis had it in a lovely shade of china blue with Reoux's new cavalier hat in dark blue the wide turned-up brim matching the dress.

Yellow was again the leading color note, but this time in a new standing being a Chanel gown in all-over beaded fabric with a wide flared skirt flaring to the ground, many of the women wore a skirt, and a pair of white gloves with a horizontally striped high waist line, floating from shoulder cape and two long shaped panels back and front in a double flounced skirt.

On all official occasions in Paris, many of the women wore long white kid gloves, which were very loosely on the arms up to the elbow.

A very chic Augustinard ensemble was worn by Henrietta, Lady Davis. This was a beige

(Copyright, 1929.)

THE great week of the Paris season was a mixture of glorious sunshine and tempestuous showers. The dress display, however, was on several occasions, very smart and the outstanding note of outdoor functions such as the Prix des Dragas, the Grand Prix, various smart afternoons at the Polo de Bagatelle and private garden parties was the eclipse of the ensemble consisting of printed fabric gown and plain coat lined with the material of the dress by the all matching ensemble usually of chiffon, but sometimes of crepe de chine, with a short, three-quarter length coat matching the dress.

Short coats predominate in great numbers, and with the charming, floating lines of the chiffon frocks they form an exquisite silhouette that is likely to be perpetuated at summer dinners in the Casinos of the fashionable places.

At the Prix des Dragas one of the outstanding ensembles was a Premet, a printed chiffon by Ducharme, a large conventional tulip design in blue on a very pale blue ground. This was made with a sleeveless corsage bloused lightly over a swathed belt. The skirt had the new clinging line to the knees, whence it flared out in a full double flounce, that was encrusted in curves onto the plain skirt. It had a scalloped edge following the lines of the encrustation, and dipped ever so slightly at the back. Just enough to give an effect of movement, without any hint of unidirection. The little chiffon coat had a slight dip at the back to follow the movement of the skirt. It was finished with a loosely tied cravat collar and a straight sleeve widening slightly at the wrist.

The dress was worn by Marie Christiane, string colored lace straw to match the shoes and stockings. The brim was turned back sharply from the face all around, carved up slightly to give the new bandeau effect over the forehead, and draped to give a symmetrical outline.
&lt;/

TODAY

Paris Season.
the Paris Fashion
director.

the corrag, bloused
ht skirt, a straight astm-d by narrow salmon-colored crepe ched to similar bows most brilliant evening
the Grande Semaine
tion given by the
of Great Britain and to the President of Republic. The fact were in uniform and us were worn made colorful.
laine gowns were
of the older women, nply blazed. Amongst able were the won-on emeralds of enordiamonds worn by ex with an emerald

known to Ameride Wolfe, had a er gown of silver e skirt veiled with of smoke grey tulle
to the ground.
was extremely chic own of sand colored ost matched her fair skirt was short all straight satin foun-
ch with a long godet white, finished with a hung fan shaped to
She wore her won-stone pear-shaped ant on a slender n.
Tyrrell, the Amba-
lar daughter, who her so efficiently in guests, was dressed in pale blue chiffon
-colored poppies on ch was full and long
The same model that ed in black by the strate Captain Moly-tribution to the ion Service.
e younger women lovely printed chif-large flower designs, long slim Patou line resented.
ooke who has an im-
of war decorations red chiffon gown in y and mauve that her with her hair.
stifful white gowns of the loveliest be-
by Madame Jacques Couselo Vander-crystal-embroidered in lines over a very white tulle skirt dip-omies both front and also to be seen, out-g a Chanel gown in i fabric with a wide anel flaring to the side from a straight ou's black chiffon horizontally shirred

e, floating frilled and two long fan-back and front in a d skirt.
official occasions in t the women won i gloves, wrinkled the arms up to the rist, 1929.)

CNIC

ena. These are a e of Prospect Park
d will greatly intern. They will like gardens, so will you.
you may come home
d you will be mend the nervous strain
d. Surely you are such a day time ight, 1929.)

ing Melons

ould be thoroughly
d thoroughly ripe, melons are as dan-h as those that are e should be taken long.
cannot be served in ent ways as water-
l-though, it is deli-ved in its natural y chilled and if not et sugar may be e cream is often cantaloupe. Some cream and candied
ple syrup are delicantaloupe.
pulp, scooped out utter and the balls emmed glasses and with a little lemon ered sugar is an ex-er.

utabs stifrice that recommnd ruggists 25c

ing

Less than 22 lbs.
10c per lb.

Co.

rest 7300

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

YESTERDAY'S ANSWER

- ACROSS
1. Sun god once worshipped by Hebrews.
  2. One maintaining a distinct identity.
  3. Divided.
  4. Look at in company.
  5. Rip.
  6. Yell.
  7. A melody.
  8. Doe.
  9. Wading bird.
  10. Joins army for second term.
  11. Makes level.
  12. More compact.
  13. Grow weary.
  14. Requests.
  15. Middle.
  16. Satisfied.
  17. Poker stake.
  18. Pulled apart.
  19. Unobstructed.
  20. Beg.
  21. Comfort.
  22. Actual.
  23. Augmented.
  24. Decrease.
  25. Retain.
  26. Beams of light.
  27. Death.
  28. Grinding tooth.
  29. Events.
  30. Occurrence.
- DOWN
1. Meals for pay.
  2. Acquiesce.
  3. Foreigner.
  4. Inclines.
  5. Steps.
  6. Elongated fish (pl.).
  7. Endure.
  8. Frozen moisture.
  9. Globe.
  10. Stopped.
  11. Italian coin (pl.).
  12. Idol.
  13. Decimals.
  14. Common metal.
  15. Excessively chilled.
  16. Headless cabbage.
  17. Slink.
  18. A wary amphibian.
  19. Irish.
  20. Tall coarse marsh grass.
  21. Acid.
  22. Altar end of church.
  23. Ball mounted for driving (golf term).
  24. Hardiness.
  25. Story.
  26. Game.
  27. Mimicked.
  28. Wagon driver.
  29. Publisher.
  30. Fathered.
  31. Intended.
  32. Interior.
  33. Shop.
  34. Serfs.
  35. Plateau.
  36. Ancient Roman poet.
  37. Give temporarily.
  38. Famous river.
  39. Approach.

Bobby Thatcher—By George Storm

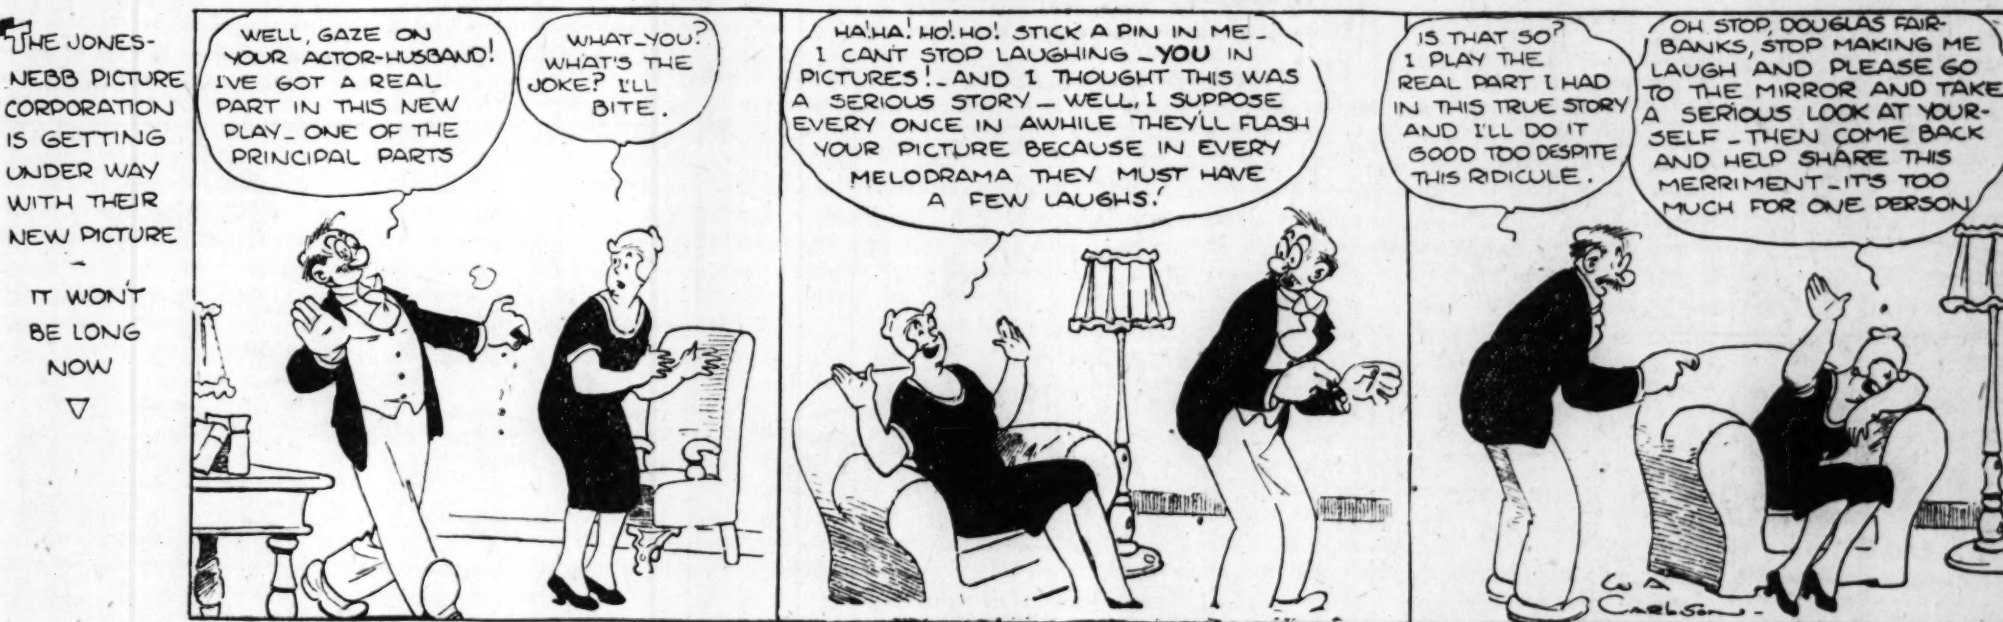

Urgent Business

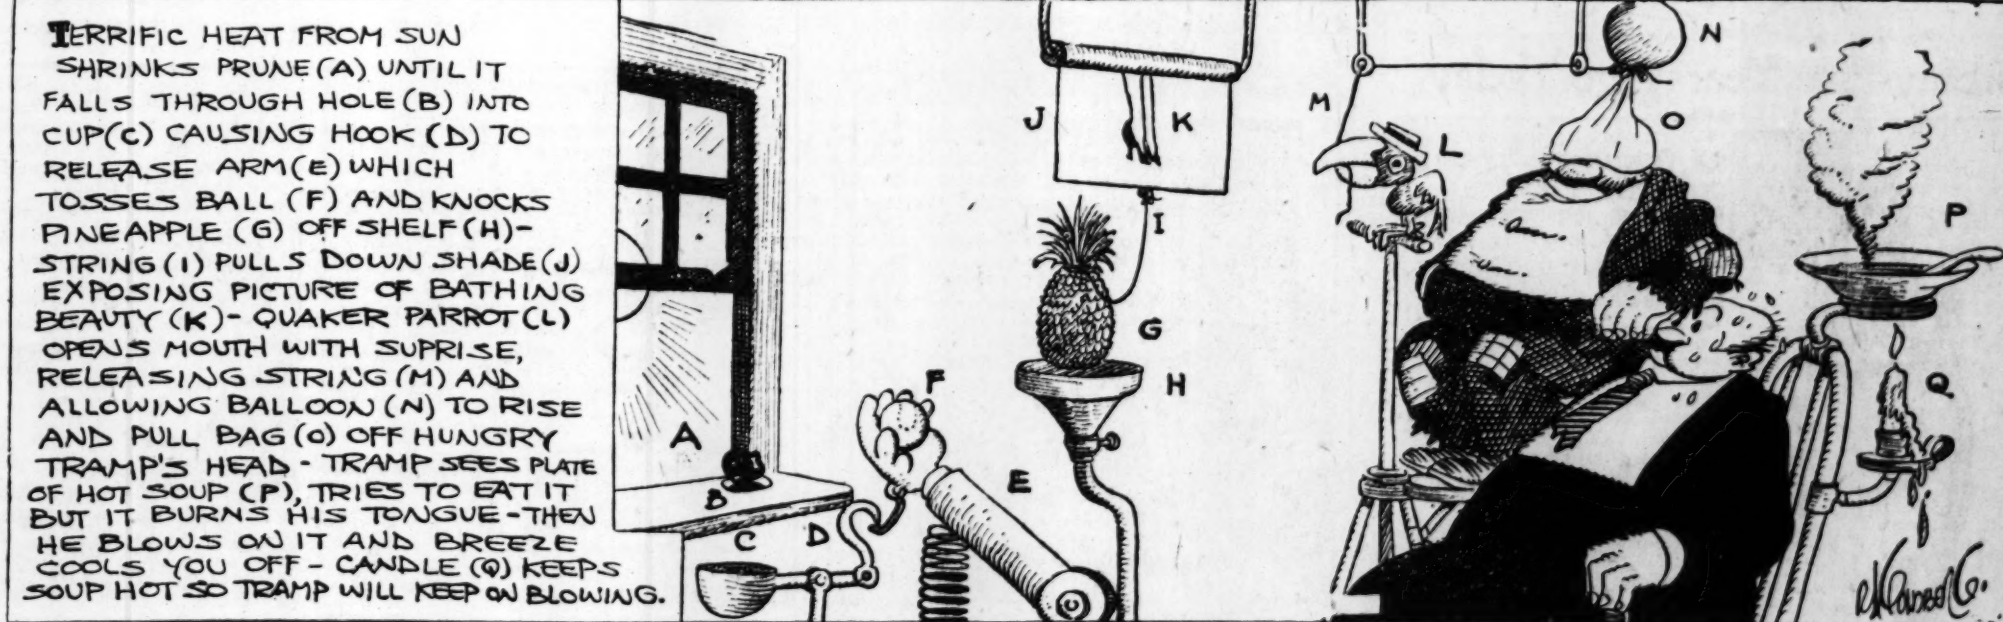

The Nebbs—By Sol Hess

Laugh That One Off

This Comic Appears as a Full Page in One of the TWO Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

It's Very Simple to Keep Cool—By Rube Goldberg

COOKING CLASS

By Nancy Dorris

THE tickle dish—and yet the simplest when you know how—is the breakfast omelet. More than have probably been shed over the tickle omelet than the baking powder blatt or the berry pie. There is nothing to omelet making.

The secret lies not in the mixing but in the cooking of the egg mixture. True, the right pan is essential, and a docile flame. The pan should be heavy enough to distribute the heat evenly and allow the eggs to cook slowly.

The nicest omelet in memory passed our Christmas breakfast. When we were a guest at the board, we refrained from talking shop or showing the omelet. A few days ago we asked our Christmas hostess whether she would tell the column how she made that omelet, delicate, custard-like in texture and very professional in appearance. She consented and here, following with her recipe, is the story:

Custard Omelet (4).

- Four eggs
Four tablespoons milk
Two teaspoons butter
One minced green pepper
Fourth teaspoon salt
Dash cayenne
Butter

A HEAVY iron pan is the ideal omelet pan," the Omelet Expert said. "If it can be kept sacred to omelets, so much the better. Otherwise scour the iron pan with salt and vinegar before using. Here is another hint. The pan remember that if it goes in the oven, the butter will burn to the top, leaving none on the bottom of the pan. So try to pour a little here, there and so on until all the mixture is in and the butter in its proper place instead of floating on top."

The working kit for the omelet includes a heavy iron pan (a skillet is our choice), bowl, tablespoon, spoon, fork, knife, spatula, small bowl, hot platter.

Melt the green pepper and butter in the butter in the omelet pan gently one minute. Remove the green pepper to a small bowl and keep warm. Beat the four eggs together until nicely mixed, as for a custard. Add the milk, and we are ready to start the cooking process."

The heat is moderate and the omelet pan hot, but not too hot. Turn the omelet over and there over the bottom of the pan and then cover with the remaining mixture. With the fork prick the edges with the spatula and turn the pan a bit to loosen it. Turn slowly for four minutes, turning the pan to aid in even cooking. The omelet may finish cooking in the oven for four minutes," she explained. "Or continue cooking over the gentle flame until the top is nearly set. Then turn out the omelet and sprinkle with the salt and

Paris Designs Bonnet For Air Minded Girls

FOR the convenience of air travelers, a milliner has designed a double hat which combines a fur aviation helmet and a felt hat with a brim. The helmet is bonnet shaped with strings that tie under the chin in a bow knot. Over it goes a felt hat with a slash in the crown through which the fur bonnet shows, supplying the trimming note.

dash of cayenne and spread one-half with the hot minced pepper. With the back of the spatula make a line across half the omelet. Then slip the spatula under the edge farthest from you and fold omelet toward you over the green pepper into a half circle.

"Definitely slip on to the hot platter, garnish with parsley and serve at once."

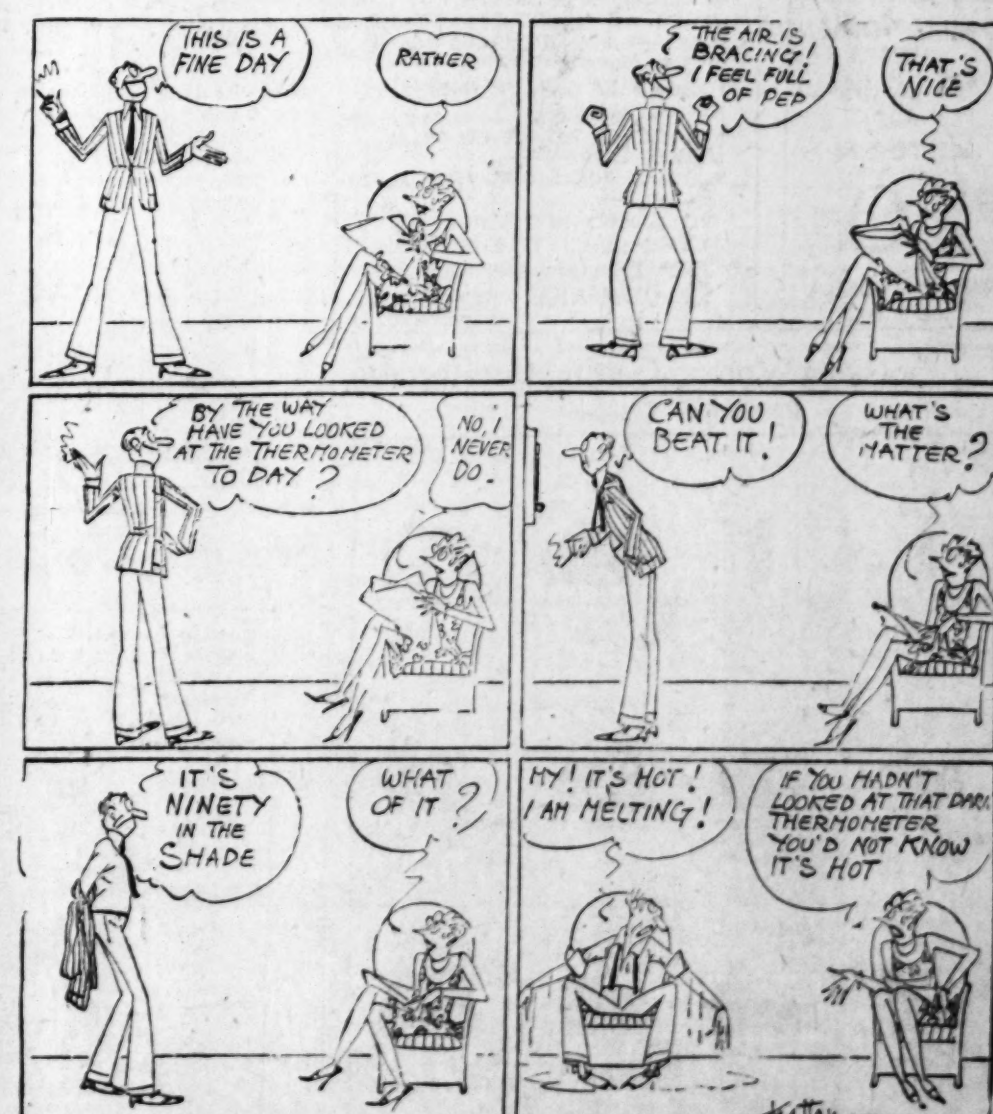

Keep bits of leftover butter in a jelly tumbler.

When a Feller Needs a Friend—By Briggs

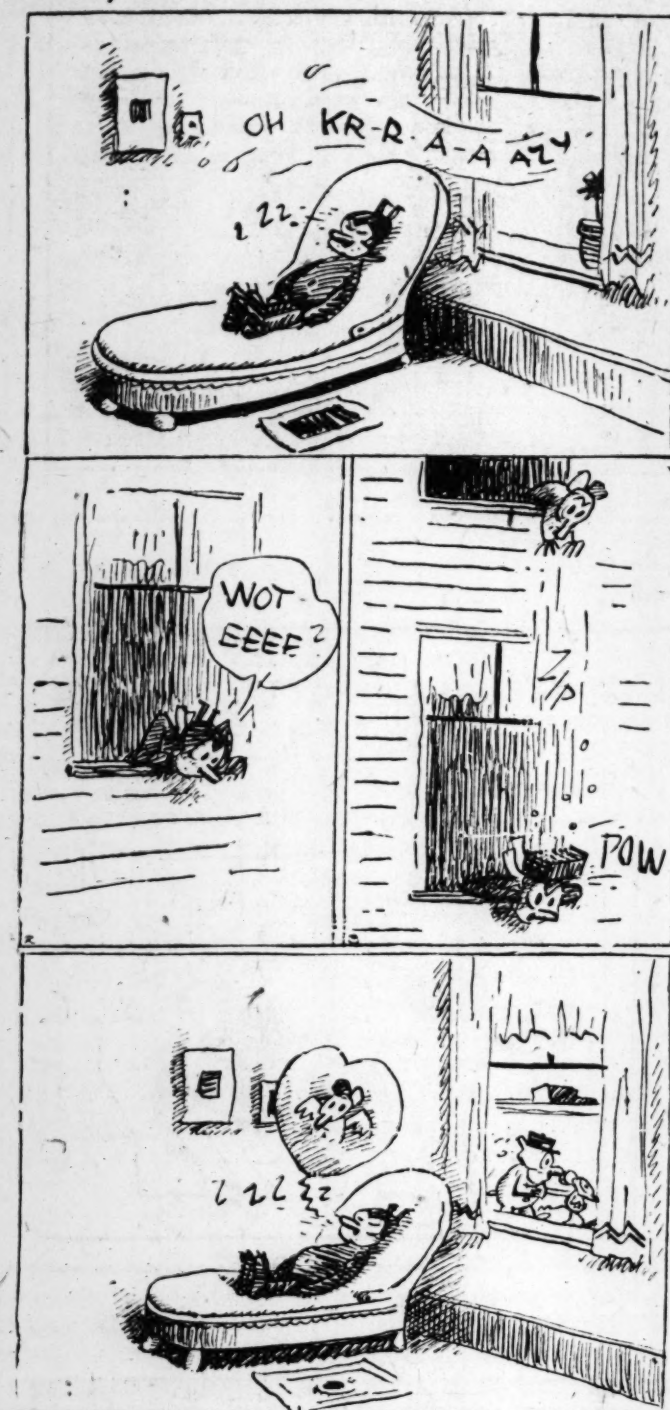

A Comic in Colors by Briggs, Appears Every Sunday in the Post-Dispatch

Can You Beat It?—By Maurice Ketten

Krazy Kat—By Herriman

The Bungle Family—By Harry J. Tuthill

Poor Hartford

This Comic Appears as a Full Page in One of the TWO Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

Skippy—By Percy L. Crosby

Sound Work

This Comic Appears as a Full Page in One of the TWO Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

Twenty-Five Years Ago Today

Ella Cinders—By Bill Conselman and Charlie Plumb

Figures Don't Lie

This Comic Appears as a Full Page in One of the TWO Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

Dumb Dora—By Chic Young

This Comic Appears in One of the TWO Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

Snapshots of a Woman Getting Comfortable
By Gluyas Williams

Bringing Up Father—By George McManus

This Comic Appears in One of the TWO Comic Sections of the Sunday Post-Dispatch

HORTON, DEBARRED PHYSICIAN, HELD FOR BLACKMAIL

Throws $1000 in Marked Bills Out of Office Window When Arrested in Kansas City.

PROSECUTOR AIDS INTENDED VICTIM

Central Figure in 'Diploma Mill' Scandal Said to Have Sought Money to 'Suppress' News Story.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 2.—Dr. R. B. Horton, debarred physician, named in numerous medical "diploma mill" activities, fell into a trap this afternoon laid by investigators of the County Prosecutor and was arrested and arraigned on the charge of blackmail.

When Horton hastily threw an envelope containing $1000 in marked money out of the second-story window of his office into Grand avenue, Robert W. Coffey was there to catch it and two other investigators were at Horton's door to restrain him.

Horton was taken only after a fight, in which for a time he bested two investigators. It required the combined efforts of Frank Howland, Jack Harrington and Tom Sullivan to subdue him.

Extortion Plot Alleged.
Dr. C. A. Beard complained to Prosecutor James R. Page today that Horton had attempted to extort money from him. Beard is a graduate of the old Kansas City College of Medicine and Surgery. That institution later became, it was alleged, one of the "diploma mills" from which diplomas were sold at nominal sums.

Beard said Horton told him another "diploma mill" news story was due to "break" Sunday morning and that since he (Beard) was an early graduate of the school, his name would be included in a list the story would contain. He said, Beard charged, that, for $1000 (Horton) could keep Beard's name out of the articles.

$1000 in Marked Bills.
Page instructed Beard to go through with the deal. The Prosecutor furnished $1000 in marked bills—one $500 bill, four $100 bills and two $50 bills. They were placed in an envelope and turned over to Beard, who was to take them to Horton's office.

Four men trailed Beard. Robert Coffey was stationed in the street in front of Horton's office. Howland, Harrington and Sullivan waited in the corridor. Beard said later he turned the envelope over to Horton. Then Howland rushed through the door. Horton grappled with him and Harrington wanted to throw him out.

Horton accepted the challenge and had both men down on the top of his desk long enough for him to reach into a drawer, get the envelope containing the money and throw it out an open window into the street, according to the investigators' report to the prosecutor. Then Sullivan entered and Horton was subdued.

Flance Is Questioned.
In the office was a young woman who indignantly protested against what she termed was an attack on Horton. She identified herself as Miss Florence Davis, and asserted she was engaged to be married to Horton. She said her father was Judge Arch Davis of Chillicothe, Mo., and protested against being mentioned in the case.

Mrs. Davis and Horton both were taken to the Prosecutor's office. A charge of blackmail was filed against Horton. Miss Davis merely was questioned. She denied any knowledge of blackmail or extortion. Horton was taken from the Prosecutor's office before Justice Joseph J. Daugherty and arraigned.

Horton was released on $10,000 bond raised by Miss Davis. Horton denied there was any element of blackmail in his proposal to Beard. He explained the $1000 was given to him to be used by him as attorney's fees in his (Horton's) fight for reinstatement of his license to practice in Missouri. The State Board of Health long ago revoked Horton's license when connection with worthless medical diplomas was disclosed. The board has known for some time that he had opened an office here and only last week James Stewart, secretary of the board, said efforts would be made soon to determine whether or not he was practicing without a license.